

Both Sides Must Share Blame

Khrushchev Visit Almost Study in Organized Chaos

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev's expedition around the United States is almost a study in organized chaos — on both sides.

The Soviet Premier has admitted he is thin-skinned: "I can never stand it when somebody steps on my pet corn without giving a worthy reply." Yet, by bragging and boasting, he stuck out his neck, or rather his foot with the corn.

Expected Heckling

He apparently even came over here expecting to be heckled.

At the Economic Club dinner in New York he said: "Naturally, when a live Communist appears in such distinguished company, there is a great interest in him; to look at him; to hear him; and,

Premier in Gay

good. Khrushchev said, but, ah, San Francisco! 'The best of all,' he said.

Khrushchev once again put in a plug for his total disarmament plan, and again called for peace treaties with Communist ruled-East Germany.

No Inkling of Threat

But there wasn't a threat anywhere in his words.

Once he said of the Soviet system: "We want to build a society under which every man will be a brother of his neighbor, where there will be no enmity, there will be complete equality; as, by the way, was preached by Christ."

"And if you do look into our philosophy you will see that we have taken a lot of Christ's precepts, regarding, for instance, love for one's neighbors and others. Such is our aim."

Earlier he went a step further than Communists usually do when they discuss the United States. The Communist line has been that the American people may want peace but their government doesn't.

But here was Khrushchev saying: "We want to have friendship with the American people and the American government, and I draw no line of distinction between the people and the government of the United States."

One-Story Frame Structure Burns In Downtown Area

A fire believed of incendiary origin damaged a one-story, frame structure at Murray and Chamber streets last night.

Units from Central and Cornell Stations, and the Wicks Engine Company, answered a call at 10:52 p. m. The blaze in the unoccupied building was confined to a rear area where it had started.

Detectives Gurnsey Burgher and Harold DeGraff were assigned when a police investigation was requested. The building, unoccupied for some time, had once housed a small store.

USED
REFRIGERATORS
RANGES, WASHERS
DRYERS, SINKS
Reconditioned - Guaranteed
J. E. BRIGGS INC.
Saugerties Rd., Kingston, N. Y.
FE 1-4012
Open Friday Till 9

THE KINGSTON DAILY FREEMAN, KINGSTON, N. Y., TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 22, 1959

Rosendale,
Tillson News
Morelli Is Named
Village Assessor

if he has a tail, to pull at his tail."

But, when he got his tail pulled, he hollered ouch! Although it was clear from what he said in New York that he expected just that, this foreknowledge of what to expect makes his temper-tantrums harder to understand.

The State Department's enormous plans for him were long on police protection against an assassin's bullet, but woefully short on saving him from embarrassing jabs and needling.

But even in this problem of arrangements Khrushchev, and to a greater extent the Soviet Embassy here, must take some of the responsibility for the unpleasantness which occurred since they agreed to the plans.

Easy to Predict

For example: Khrushchev agreed to meet with Walter Reuther and other American labor leaders. From the very inception of this idea the meeting was going to be a bull-baiting tournament. Anyone could have predicted it.

But when it turned out that way, Khrushchev got sore. He certainly didn't think he was going to play spin-the-bottle with Reuther and his friends.

They wanted to show him how anti-Communist American workers were. They probably did nothing of the kind. A Communist like Khrushchev probably makes a sharp distinction between labor leaders and the masses of workers.

Started Irritation

Reuther said Khrushchev called him a capitalistic stooge. Why the surprise at that? Khrushchev and his friends no doubt consider all union leaders to be secret management men whose job is to keep down workers' wages.

Khrushchev himself started the general irritation a moment after he landed here with his boasting and bragging, a line he has pursued throughout his trip.

With President Eisenhower standing beside him — and the whole world aware that only two days before the U.S.S.R. had hit the moon — Khrushchev read a prepared statement at the airport boasting about the moonshot.

This hit a sour note from the start. You might call it poor taste. But it certainly was a clumsy entrance.

Then at one gathering after another — here, in New York, in California — Khrushchev bragged of Soviet progress, of the moonshot, the new Soviet atomic ice-breaker. He predicted repeatedly the U.S.S.R. would surpass the United States.

Premied Overdid It

When a man keeps hitting his hosts over the head with this kind of crowing — even though he is a guest — he can expect some sharp reactions. There's limit to it, and Khrushchev overdid it.

At the same time he is a guest. Some of the questions flung at him at Washington's National Press Club and elsewhere — and particularly the curt and needling treatment he got from Mayor Norris Poulson of Los Angeles — seemed rude, unnecessary and, as Khrushchev said, using one of his favorite words, provocative.

The State Department — instead of meticulous efforts with state and city officials to handle him carefully and avoid heckling and snide digs — seemed to concentrate on police protection.

Knew of Dangers

At the same time Khrushchev sounded phony when he complained publicly about the extent of his police protection, particularly when he whimpered about not getting to Disneyland.

His own security officers had a hand in the police arrangements. And he knew that it wasn't safe for him, in a country with many violent anti-Communists, to walk the streets unguarded.

Mountain Hunt
For Missing Boy
To Resume Oct. 1

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A 75-man force will resume a search Oct. 1 for David Raleigh, 5, who disappeared last June in wild Catskill Mountain country, State Police headquarters said today.

The search party will include 21 troopers, Conservation Department game-protectors and forest rangers, sheriff's deputies and volunteers.

David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart F. Raleigh Jr. of Fayetteville, near Syracuse, disappeared while vacationing with his parents at a lodge near Phoenixia.

David had been fishing with his parents when he was told to run to the lodge, 200 yards from the shore of Lake Winisook, during a sudden downpour. Minutes later, when his parents arrived at the lodge, the boy could not be found.

During a two-week search in June, the lake was drained on the theory that David might have fallen in, but no trace was found.

Police said dense foliage had hampered the search during the summer. They said they hoped the lighter fall foliage would aid the searchers to find the boy's body.

The resumed search will last four days, unless the boy is found before that.

Tompkins . . .

Robert Orseck on behalf of the special attorney general's office.

In the case of Morgan D. Ryan, former official of the defunct Ulster Bituminous Company, Inc., Ryan's counsel N. LeVan Haver seeks to have the court declare an indictment returned by a regular grand jury last Aug. 5, charging Ryan with bribery to be illegal. He charged that Supreme Court Justice William Deckelman had no authority to hear the indictment brought by the regular grand jury.

Earlier an indictment returned by a special grand jury charging Ryan with conspiracy to bribe public officials, had been dismissed by the Court of Appeals on the grounds Ryan might have received immunity before the special grand jury. It was following this action that the matter was re-submitted to a regular grand jury and the indictment, now in question, was returned. Wilfred Caron argued for the special prosecutor.

In the cases of Harry Bareika Inc., Walter Truck Company of Ridgeview, Queens, and Rand-MacMurray Inc. of Huntington Station, L. I., application was made by each defendant for a bill of particulars. John E. Egan appeared for Bareika and John T. DeGraff of Albany argued for the other two defendants. Joseph Soviero of the special prosecutors staff opposed. The defendants were charged by the grand jury with conspiracy to defraud the Town of Woodstock in the sale of a snow removal truck in January of this year.

Dil Ferrari will be chairman of the dance at the school hall Nov. 21. Assisting will be Ciro Salerno, John O'Sullivan, Alphonse DeSimone, Frank Connell, Robert Waddell and the Mimes, Ferrari, Salerno, Herman Walsh and Nicholas Pezzello.

A special meeting of the committee will be held Thursday 8 p. m. at the school hall.

A check for $150 will be presented to the Sisters for their use in the school. Mr. and Mrs. George Moyley donated a new flag to the school.

Uniforms for school children were discussed and John O'Sullivan suggested that was a matter for the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Vincent DePaul Mulry and the sisters of the school to decide.

Msgr. Mulry spoke to the members and urged more support of the association by the parents.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 28 at the school hall.

Will Study Kitten

First freighter to the St. Lawrence River was a wooden vessel, the "Enterprise," built in 1856, which ran between Ogdensburg and Dodges Landing, near Massena, N. Y.

River Freighters

First freighter to ply the St. Lawrence River was a wooden vessel, the "Enterprise," built in 1856, which ran between Ogdensburg and Dodges Landing, near Massena, N. Y.

Receives Scholarship Award

Wayne Underhill, (second from left) of Woodstock, a 1959 Kingston High School graduate receives the first scholarship award presented by Ulster Detachment, Marine Corps League. Making the presentation are (l-r) Valmore F. Carpenter of West Camp, vice commandant-East Department of New York, a past Ulster Detachment commandant; Gilbert Gray, current commandant, and John Ray Mayone, scholarship chairman. Young Underhill will enter Virginia Military Institute. The award will help pay for his first year's tuition. This scholarship and others are made possible by the proceeds of the annual Marine Ball. This year's ball will be held November 14 at the Tropical Inn, Port Ewen. The other recipient of a scholarship from the fund is John C. Dailey of Port Ewen, who is a graduate of the New York State Maritime College, Fort Schuyler. He is also a Kingston High School graduate.

Rev. McVey Still Listed as Critical

Still listed as critical at Kingston Hospital today is the Rev. William J. McVey, of 195 Tremper Avenue, pastor of First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Mr. McVey suffered a heart attack Sept. 15.

Will Talk . . .

This was followed by a sudden reversal of opinion last week.

Rauer's letter to the mayor noted that, although it was proposed that the change not be made at this time, the proposal would be "held in abeyance for further study."

Merchants Interested

Merchants of the area asked for a change in traffic flow to facilitate movement both east and west near their stores in the upper Broadway-Albany Avenue area.

Rauer wrote to Mayor Radel:

"Under date of Sept. 1, I informed you that I had obtained approval to permit construction for a left turn from Albany Avenue to Broadway in connection with the interchange of those streets, and St. James Street in Kingston."

However, he noted, at an Albany conference last week, "it was revealed that further studies of traffic movements in the area, indicated that it would be unsafe to provide for a left turn without an additional traffic signal, and as under the present plan, all movements and signals have been coordinated and synchronized it is not advisable to modify this plan until it gets in operation." He then indicated that later studies would be made.

Stress Late Notice

State engineers noted earlier this year that the changes should have been mentioned when a hearing was held soon after introduction of the arterial route plan here early in 1954. It was also noted that the state is reluctant to make provisions for left turns in plans which are designated mainly to eliminate them.

Assemblyman Wilson today noted that the requested change at the juncture of Albany Avenue and Broadway is a simple one, and he felt that it can be directed without any serious disruption of plans. It calls merely for cutting through a section of mall or "island" on the western side of the traffic pattern.

The Federal Bureau of Roads, which also must give approval of any change, will be represented at tomorrow's Albany meeting.

The route, as part of an interstate system, gets 90 per cent construction cost assistance from the Federal Government.

Mt. Marion

MT. MARION — The Rev. Henry L. Reinwald, pastor of Plattekill Reformed Church, Mt. Marion, attended a committee meeting of the New York Synod at Hastings Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Von Kamen and daughter Jean of Brooklyn spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. William Myer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Antalek and daughter Diana Lynn spent the weekend at Schenectady.

The Ladies' Aid Circle will hold its first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Maxfield Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kamark of Irvington visited Mr. and Mrs. Warren Myer Saturday.

The Civic Association held its first meeting of the season at Mt. Marion Inn Monday night.

Mrs. Lynn Covert of Woodside, L. I., visited Mrs. John Plass last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walsh and son, William Jr., of New York City have moved into Spruce House.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Harder and family of Hurley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Gillison Tuesday evening.

Laura Burch celebrated her 10th birthday Monday with a party.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Potter and family spent the weekend at Ticonderoga.

The Plattekill Youth Fellowship met at the home of Mrs. Robert Bartlett Monday evening.

The Plattekill Reformed Church, Mt. Marion, will celebrate its 125th anniversary with special services Oct. 4.

Will Study Kitten

A kitten was held for observation as a safeguard against rabies today after it had bitten Helen Pinkosz, of 14 Ravine Street, on the left thumb this morning in front of her house.

The bite followed an attempt to pet the animal which had been known to residents of the neighborhood for some time. Police headquarters and the SPCA and County Health Department were notified, and the kitten will be held under observation for several days. It was noted that the animal appeared ill or was the victim of a fit, which could be attributed to less serious sources than rabies.

Rejection Likely

blunt U. S. reply to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's proposal of Peiping's case here last week. Kuznetsov charged Robertson with distorting facts in an attempt to churn up feeling against Red China. He depicted the Communist state as peace loving and reiterated its claim to the Chinese Nationalist bastion of Formosa.

The opening day of debate on the issue indicated none of the member states has switched its position from last year when Peiping's bid was beaten down 44-28.

Only the Soviet bloc members appear to be giving spirited backing to Khrushchev's declaration that refusal to seat Red China is causing an intolerable situation.

Farm Worker Sought

Area police were asked Monday night to assist in locating Walter Profit, an itinerant seasonal farm worker, who was believed to be in this region. The request came from Sylvester Profit, a brother of West Palm Beach, Fla.

Arrested as AWOL

James Alan Johnson, 19, of 95 Green Street, was arrested at that address yesterday afternoon on the charge that he was absent without leave from the U.S. Army. He was held pending arrival of military authorities from Albany.

Rod Determined

In the 16th century, the English legal rod was determined as the total length of the left feet of 16 men who lined up to be measured.

Work on Signal Again

Work resumed today on the installation of an aluminum mast arm at Broadway and Henry Street. The unit replaces a maze of wires and cables and former trolley poles. It also eliminates the danger of the low hanging signal units. Installation, started some time ago, was delayed because of the need for reordering parts.

House Arrest Just Joke, Russia Told

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet readers were told today that Premier Nikita Khrushchev was joking in his remark that he had been "under house arrest" in the United States.

Alexei Adzhubei, who is Khrushchev's son-in-law and editor of the government newspaper Izvestia, said Khrushchev made the remark jokingly after he returned to his train from a whistlestop conversation with "plain Americans."

Always on Go

Commuters, Hit By Rail Cuts, May Ride Buses

NEW YORK (AP) — The State Public Service Commission today gave four Yonkers, N. Y., bus companies permission to provide commuter service for some Westchester County commuters who lost direct rail connections to the city when the New York Central Railroad discontinued its Putnam division.

One of the companies, Monaco Stages, has been providing transportation from Yonkers to mid-Manhattan for the "Lincoln Commuters Club," which travels from the Lincoln and Bryn Mawr stations areas of the old Putnam line. New York City objected, contending Monaco was providing unauthorized bus service. The PSC decision in Monaco's favor declared that it would be consistent with the public interest to permit the company to continue service as a contract carrier.

The PSC granted Liberty Coaches Inc., which now operates bus service from North Tarrytown to 138th Street, The Bronx, to extend its operations to the Grand Central Terminal area. Temporary authority was given Yonkers Railroad Co. and Club Transportation Corp. to provide commuter bus service between the abandoned Lincoln and Bryn Mawr stations and mid-Manhattan.

Marines in Panama

Marines were landed in Panama six times between 1885 and 1903 to quell uprisings that were endangering U. S. property and the building of the Panama

Virginia Mishap Takes 9th Life

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — Virginia's worst highway accident in 24 years has claimed its ninth life.

John Baker, 17, of Petersburg died in a Richmond hospital Monday evening, less than 24 hours after the other seven passengers of an auto and the driver of a truck perished in the tangled, flaming three-vehicle crash.

The only survivor of the pile-up is Jesse Lee Moody, 50, of Sutherland, driver of a pickup truck. He was in critical condition at a Richmond hospital.

Each year, the common cold takes an economic toll of two billion dollars in the United States.

GIT ALONG, BEEP-BEEP!—The West has changed, though little kids may not want to believe it. Now cowboys like Jodie Ringlestein, above, herd cattle with motor scooters. He's rounding 'em up in one of six electric horseless carriages in use at the San Antonio, Tex., Union Stockyards.

University of Rochester To Spend $49,900,000

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — The University of Rochester has announced a $49,900,000 expansion program to be conducted over a six-year period.

President Cornelius Dekiewiet revealed the project Monday night.

He said the initial goal was $21,200,000 to be used to increase faculty salaries, improve educational programs and adjust student aid and meet the rising costs of operations.

The remaining $28,700,000 would be used for capital additions and improvements to the university's three campuses, he said.

RR Stockholders To Discuss Merger

NEW YORK (AP) — Stockholders of the Erie Railroad and the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad meet today to decide whether the two lines should band together into a single, 7,300-mile system.

The stockholder groups, in separate meetings slated for 10 a. m. EST, must endorse the proposed merger by at least two-thirds majorities.

The consolidated road, extending from Hoboken, N. J., to Chicago, would be known as Erie-Lackawanna Railroad Co.

Under the merger plan, Erie common stockholders would get 1 1/4 shares and Lackawanna stockholders one share of common stock in the new company for each share they hold now.

Erie preferred stock would not be affected. All existing bonds of both roads would remain outstanding.

The two lines figure the merger would boost their earnings by at least $13,400,000 a year before federal income taxes. The new road would have combined assets of about $70 million dollars.

The planned merger, long under discussion, originally included Delaware & Hudson Railroad, which runs between Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Montreal, Canada. But the road dropped out of the discussions last year. Erie officials, however, have said there's a chance the D&H might still join the proposed system.

Can Wear Philippine Legion of Honor Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Rep. Bernard W. Kearney, Republican from Lake Pleasant, Hamilton County, N. Y., now can accept and wear the Philippine Legion of Honor.

President Eisenhower signed a bill Monday permitting Kearney to do so.

U. S. officials are not permitted to accept decorations from foreign governments unless Congress makes an exception through passage of special legislation.

Kearney, who attained the rank of major general in the Army National Guard, was retired in 1940 for a physical disability. He entered Congress in 1942 and chose not to seek re-election last year.

Planners Advise Against Apalachin Site for Tourists

APALACHIN, N. Y. (AP) — Two specialists in community planning recommended rejection of a plan to turn the site of the 1957 Apalachin gangland convention into a tourist attraction.

Dr. Seymour Mann and Joseph Missavage of Binghamton made the recommendation Monday night to the Town of Owego Planning Board.

They said rezoning "should not be made purely to afford relief for individuals."

LaRue and Phyllis Quick, who purchased the hilltop estate of the late Joseph Barbara Sr. last June for $135,000, have petitioned for a change in zoning regulations to permit them to operate a restaurant in the mansion.

Some local organizations have objected to the proposal because it would, they say, turn the estate into a "shrine to crime."

Barbara, host to the meeting that drew top hoodlums from many parts of the country, died shortly after he sold the property.

John E. Sweet, planning board chairman, said the board would study the issue further before acting upon the petition. The board must make a recommendation to the town board, which will call a public hearing.

Poughkeepsie Paper Announces Promotions

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. (AP) — The promotion of John M. Alexander to advertising director of The Poughkeepsie New Yorker was announced Monday by Clifford J. Nuhn, the newspaper's editor and publisher.

Alexander succeeds Philip B. Maguire, who died Sept. 6. Harold E. Jones was named local display advertising manager, a post Alexander had held since 1951. Jones had been senior advertising display representative.

Buffalo Child Third Bulbar Polio Victim

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — James Robert Jr., 7, who died last Friday, was the third victim of bulbar polio in Erie County Health Department announced.

William E. Mosher, health commissioner, said the boy had received three Salk injections.

The commissioner said Monday that the two previous polio deaths were caused by the bulbar form of the disease.

$$$$ SALE $$$ plus DOUBLE Stamps WED. during

MOHICAN
63rd ANNIVERSARY SALE
1896-1959

57-59 JOHN STREET — KINGSTON, NEW YORK

STORE HOURS: DAILY 'TIL 6 p. m. — FRIDAY 'TIL 9 p. m.

CHOP SALE

Best Center PORK CHOPS lb. 69¢
Best Shoulder LAMB CHOPS lb. 69¢

• ONE DAY ONLY •

MOHICAN FAMOUS BULK

BUTTER lb. 69¢

MOHICAN INSTANT

COFFEE 6 OZ. JAR 69¢

MOHICAN WELL FILLED REG. PRICE 53¢

APPLE PIES 2 FOR 69¢

a New Idea for a New Era

JUMPING JUNIOR INSURANCE

Children growing? Then meet their growing needs with a new kind of protection that can help provide cash for college . . . for launching a career . . . for starting a home. Here's how "Jumping Junior" life insurance works:

A $1,000 policy purchased before your child turns age 14 jumps to $2,500 at age 15 — then jumps again to $5,000 at age 21 — yet the "baby premium" rates always remain the same.

Your neighborhood Nationwide man can give you details about "Jumping Junior" — and over a hundred other kinds of low-cost insurance protection. He's waiting for your call!

DeFOREST C. WILES, district manager

NATIONWIDE INSURANCE

BOX 178, HURLEY, NEW YORK

PHONE: Federal 1-5197

Nationwide Life Insurance Co. • Nationwide Mutual Insurance Co. • Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Co. • home office: Columbus, Ohio

FOR INFORMATION SEE ONE OF THE AGENTS BELOW:

ROGER BOICE

274 FAIR STREET
KINGSTON, N. Y.
PHONE FEB-7774

FRANCIS COSTA

42 WILTYCK AVE.
KINGSTON, N. Y.
PHONE FE-8-6298

RICHARD "DICK" STEWART

277 FAIR STREET
KINGSTON, N. Y.
PHONE FE-1-8464

WILLIAM ZACHER

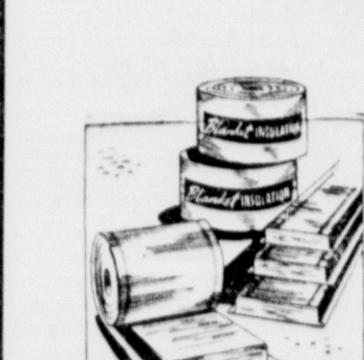

MAIN STREET
RIFFTON, N. Y.
PHONE OL-4-3553

RAYMOND DAVIS

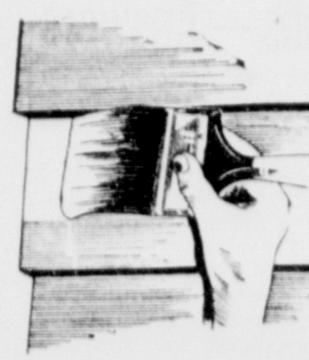

STOLL COURT
KINGSTON, N. Y.
PHONE FE-8-5693

ANTHONY RIOZZI

RD. NO. 3, BOX 395-D
SAUGERTIES, N. Y.
PHONE CH-6-2441

Our insulation is comfort insurance. Buy now to do the average attic space for winter weather. Free show-how advice.

Chase signs of weather wear and tear from your home. Paint it with our smooth-flowing, long lasting MOORE paints. Budget terms arranged.

Kingston LUMBER
"Where Quality Rules"
344 FAIR STREET Phone FEDERAL 1-2052

The Kingston Daily Freeman

By carrier 40 cents per week
By carrier per year in advance..... $19.00
By mail per year outside Ulster County..... 20.00
By mail in Ulster County per year $14.00; six months,
$7.50; three months $4.00; one month $1.00

Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office at Kingston, N. Y.

Jay E. Klock

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

TWO-NATION WORLD

At Yalta, Stalin made it clear that just as he had formed an alliance with Hitler to divide the world between them, so he was ready for a two-nation control of the world; that is, by Soviet Russia and the United States. It was because of this attitude on the part of Stalin that Chiang Kai-shek and General de Gaulle were omitted from the Summit Conference at Yalta, where Stalin and Roosevelt did business behind the back of Winston Churchill, and, as the record shows, at times, privately ridiculed him.

Khrushchev also thinks in terms of a two-nation world. After all, if the two major powers decided to dominate the world, what could the small countries do? Could they unite to fight a combination of Soviet Russia and the United States? In fact, as one thinks about the two-nation world concept, it is reminiscent of the division of the United States into locality syndicates, governed out of Chicago by Al Capone. It is the concept of "unite and divide" instead of "divide and conquer."

Nikita Khrushchev, in reply to one of the questions asked of him at the National Press Club in Washington, listed a few of the nationalities in the Soviet Union and said that if he would list them all, it would consume much time. In a word, Soviet Russia had solved the nationality problem for good part of Europe and Asia by rejecting its existence as a fact. But that cannot be done as regards Nationalist or Red China; it cannot be done as regards India; it cannot be done as regards Great Britain or any Western European country.

Khrushchev's two-nation concept, while it might lessen the present tensions, would create new and greater tensions and could set the entire world in explosion. Instead of One Worldism, instead of a two-nation world, nationalism is on the march accompanied by a fragmentation of empires into smaller, nationalistic states.

Khrushchev exhibited a fear of this trend in his reference to Hungary at the National Press Club luncheon. He was asked a question about Hungary. He did not answer the question. He said that if he wanted to be unpleasant, he could ask similar questions about the United States, but he had no intention of being unpleasant. He meandered all over the map but he did not answer the question about Soviet Russia's interference in the internal affairs of Hungary.

He did not answer it because in the Soviet theory of world organization such an entity as Hungary does not exist. What exists are the countries that are building Socialism and Communism, and the countries that choose to remain capitalist. The names of countries are geographical and have no realistic meaning from his standpoint.

Thus, Russia itself has become a provincial term; the vast state over which Khrushchev presides is the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. It would be as though France disappeared into a complex of NATO states and became a province of such an area.

Nevertheless, this is the current Russian point of view. For, if the entire world became Communist, according to Marxist-Leninist theory, nations, races, religions and even governments would wither away.

How deeply this is ingrained in Khrushchev's mentality became obvious from a curious change of pace during the National Press Club luncheon. Khrushchev delivered his address and answered questions in large chunks which his interpreter, Oleg Troyanovsky, handled very well.

But at the very end, Khrushchev lectured his audience on Marxist-Leninist theory on the rise and fall of various economic and social systems. Troyanovsky translated sentence by sentence. Sometimes Khrushchev even stopped for him to translate a phrase or a word. Here was a party apparatnik lecturing on fundamentals, every word of which was weighed, because even he, Khrushchev, dared not, in a loose moment, utter an unorthodox phrase.

The United States will not and cannot ever accept the two-nation concept. In the first place, it cannot be American policy to dominate the world. Our people will never tolerate such a policy. Secondly, we have too much respect for other nations to disregard their opinions, desires or needs. An understanding with Soviet Russia to lessen the tensions of the Cold War cannot in any way lessen our association with the nations who have been our allies and friends.

Who says politics isn't fair? When Ike named several Democrats he regards as fit for their party's presidential nomination, no one insinuated he picked any of them because they would be easy to beat.

ANOTHER TIME SAVER

The latest culinary tidings inform us that a housewife can bake a potato in four minutes in an electric oven. A five-pound roast takes half an hour. A frozen t-bone steak can be transformed to a state of medium rareness in a matter of minutes. All this, we are informed, is progress.

There are, as yet, a few bugs in electronic cookery. Ordinary metal pots and pans won't do, for example, because they reflect the microwaves which do the cooking. Furthermore, it seems that most foods done in an electric range will not acquire that lovely browned look associated with so much that is delectable. And since various foods cook at different speeds, preparing several items at once may require the services of a statistician to figure cooking times.

Still, it doubtless adds up to progress. The housewife will be able to prepare an entire meal in half an hour, perhaps less. Question: What is she going to do with all that time she saves?

Refugees from communism are escaping into West Berlin at the rate of 1,700 weekly. If this keeps up, the Berlin problem may eventually be solved by draining all the people out of the eastern sector.

People whose friends used to expect gift vegetables from their back yard gardens have been succeeded by those whose swimming pools overflow with visitors.

PORK'S PLENTIFUL

Since President Eisenhower took office he has vetoed more than 140 bills passed by Congress. Dozens of times the lawmakers tried to override, but always they failed.

Not long ago, he slapped them down on their pet measure—the rivers, harbors and reclamation appropriation bill. That's the one the legislators rely on to keep them in good favor at home.

This had happened before, and the lawmakers were angry. They passed the bill again, without deleting the 67 items the President objected to. In less than half an hour after receiving the measure, Mr. Eisenhower sent it back to Capitol Hill with another veto message.

But there the game of "shuttle the pork barrel" ended. Rising in fresh wrath, both House and Senate voted by comfortable margins to override the President's veto and enact into law their cherished personal projects.

Thus it will be recorded in history that Congress broke Mr. Eisenhower's veto spell

Dr. Jordan Says: ★

Most Effective Treatment
For a Rupture Is Surgery

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Several questions regarding hernia have been brought up by a recent correspondent which I shall attempt to answer in this column.

He says that he is 60 and has had a hernia on his left side for several years. He has received literature from a hernia control service and wonders if this will bring permanent control, since he is not too keen on an operation.

One cannot give a specific reply to these questions without knowing more concerning the degree of the hernia, the physical condition of the patient and his occupation. The question of hernia or rupture, which is the same thing, can however be discussed in general and may throw some light on this correspondent's questions.

A rupture is a weakening of the structures which are supposed to hold the organs in place, usually the abdominal organs. It is believed that this weakness is more or less inborn, though it may never show up unless some heavy strain has been put on the weakened tissue by lifting something too heavy or some similar injury.

But once a rupture has developed, it is likely to get gradually worse and may even get so bad that some of the organs lying in the ruptured sac can become strangulated and cause serious complications.

There are three possible lines of treatment for a hernia. The simplest is to wear a truss or support which may keep the sac and abdominal contents more or less in place. This can be reasonably satisfactory for a person who does not do heavy labor, though there is always some danger that a sudden strain will cause serious trouble. Also it is a nuisance. Nevertheless, there are many people who wear a truss for many years with fairly good success.

Some years ago the injection treatment was suggested for hernia. The purpose of injection is to irritate the inside of the hernia sac so that a firm scar will form at the point where the hernia is bulging and force back the contents of the sac where it belongs.

This method requires several treatments and carries some risk. Also the scar tissue formed is not always strong enough to bring permanent relief. Although the injection treatment still has some supporters, it is probably not used as much as it used to be and is not as desirable as surgery in most cases.

Surgery is the most effective treatment. By this means the contents of the sac can be put back in place and a firm covering built up at the weak point so that the organs are kept where they belong. The hernia occasionally returns after such operations, often because of the carelessness of the patient, but modern methods of operating have improved the technic so much that recurrences have become less and less frequent.

with a massive assertion of support for the well-weathered principle of "let me get mine."

Remember their great triumph the next time you hear them talking of "economy in government."

"Now Try It With Your Arms Folded"

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Two key questions asked of Russia's Chairman Nikita Khrushchev at his National Press Club speech and interview were either misunderstood or misinterpreted.

The revealing result was that misleading answers may have been given possibly by accident, perhaps deliberately.

First and most important question was "Mr. Chairman, can you summarize for us—

"In your speech today, have you offered any specifically new proposals that have not been put forward before for easing world tensions?"

In the speech Khrushchev had mentioned that he wanted to reach agreement with the United States on "easement of international tensions and abolition of the cold war, disarmament, a peace treaty with Germany, world trade and improvement of relations between our two countries."

IT SOUNDED LIKE THE same old, tired Communist slogans. There was a chance here for the number one Russian to say that he had brought some new offers to America. But for some reason or other, he ducked it completely.

"Well, one cannot think up new problems," Khrushchev replied. "We must first settle the problems that have already arisen and are ripe for solution. And we should not divert ourselves to discussing secondary questions until the fundamental ones have been settled. Therefore, I would agree if someone were to say I did not put forward any new questions in my speech. But as they say,

'repetition is the mother of knowledge.'

There was at first some belief that Oleg Troyanovsky, who translated the English question into Russian might have misinterpreted word "proposals" in the reporter's query into the word "questions" which Chairman Khrushchev used in his answer.

But U. S. State Department interpreters who were present confirmed that the translation was correct.

Khrushchev apparently chose deliberately to answer that he has no new questions to bring up—only the old ones.

"In your speech today, have you offered any specifically new proposals that have not been put forward before for easing world tensions?"

In the speech Khrushchev had mentioned that he wanted to reach agreement with the United States on "easement of international tensions and abolition of the cold war, disarmament, a peace treaty with Germany, world trade and improvement of relations between our two countries."

THE SECOND QUERY which did not get a full answer from Chairman Khrushchev related to increased U. S.-U.S.S.R. trade: "What particularly do you want to buy from us and what particularly do you wish to sell us?"

American interpreters again confirm that the question was correctly translated into Russian. But Chairman Khrushchev chose deliberately not to answer the question directly, though this was a golden opportunity.

His full reply is too long to repeat here "begging for something from Uncle Sam." Russia could produce anything the U. S. could produce and on some things had produced them first.

No one from the Soviet ministry of foreign trade had been included in his party, said Khrushchev. But if there was any desire to conduct negotiations, they would be forthcoming.

"Well, one cannot think up new problems," Khrushchev replied. "We must first settle the problems that have already arisen and are ripe for solution. And we should not divert ourselves to discussing secondary questions until the fundamental ones have been settled. Therefore, I would agree if someone were to say I did not put forward any new questions in my speech. But as they say,

'repetition is the mother of knowledge.'

There was at first some belief that Oleg Troyanovsky, who translated the English question into Russian might have misinterpreted word "proposals" in the reporter's query into the word "questions" which Chairman Khrushchev used in his answer.

But U. S. State Department interpreters who were present confirmed that the translation was correct.

Khrushchev apparently chose deliberately to answer that he has no new questions to bring up—only the old ones.

"In your speech today, have you offered any specifically new proposals that have not been put forward before for easing world tensions?"

In the speech Khrushchev had mentioned that he wanted to reach agreement with the United States on "easement of international tensions and abolition of the cold war, disarmament, a peace treaty with Germany, world trade and improvement of relations between our two countries."

THE SECOND QUERY which did not get a full answer from Chairman Khrushchev related to increased U. S.-U.S.S.R. trade: "What particularly do you want to buy from us and what particularly do you wish to sell us?"

American interpreters again confirm that the question was correctly translated into Russian. But Chairman Khrushchev chose deliberately not to answer the question directly, though this was a golden opportunity.

His full reply is too long to repeat here "begging for something from Uncle Sam." Russia could produce anything the U. S. could produce and on some things had produced them first.

No one from the Soviet ministry of foreign trade had been included in his party, said Khrushchev. But if there was any desire to conduct negotiations, they would be forthcoming.

"Well, one cannot think up new problems," Khrushchev replied. "We must first settle the problems that have already arisen and are ripe for solution. And we should not divert ourselves to discussing secondary questions until the fundamental ones have been settled. Therefore, I would agree if someone were to say I did not put forward any new questions in my speech. But as they say,

'repetition is the mother of knowledge.'

There was at first some belief that Oleg Troyanovsky, who translated the English question into Russian might have misinterpreted word "proposals" in the reporter's query into the word "questions" which Chairman Khrushchev used in his answer.

But U. S. State Department interpreters who were present confirmed that the translation was correct.

Khrushchev apparently chose deliberately to answer that he has no new questions to bring up—only the old ones.

"In your speech today, have you offered any specifically new proposals that have not been put forward before for easing world tensions?"

In the speech Khrushchev had mentioned that he wanted to reach agreement with the United States on "easement of international tensions and abolition of the cold war, disarmament, a peace treaty with Germany, world trade and improvement of relations between our two countries."

THE SECOND QUERY which did not get a full answer from Chairman Khrushchev related to increased U. S.-U.S.S.R. trade: "What particularly do you want to buy from us and what particularly do you wish to sell us?"

American interpreters again confirm that the question was correctly translated into Russian. But Chairman Khrushchev chose deliberately not to answer the question directly, though this was a golden opportunity.

His full reply is too long to repeat here "begging for something from Uncle Sam." Russia could produce anything the U. S. could produce and on some things had produced them first.

No one from the Soviet ministry of foreign trade had been included in his party, said Khrushchev. But if there was any desire to conduct negotiations, they would be forthcoming.

"Well, one cannot think up new problems," Khrushchev replied. "We must first settle the problems that have already arisen and are ripe for solution. And we should not divert ourselves to discussing secondary questions until the fundamental ones have been settled. Therefore, I would agree if someone were to say I did not put forward any new questions in my speech. But as they say,

'repetition is the mother of knowledge.'

There was at first some belief that Oleg Troyanovsky, who translated the English question into Russian might have misinterpreted word "proposals" in the reporter's query into the word "questions" which Chairman Khrushchev used in his answer.

But U. S. State Department interpreters who were present confirmed that the translation was correct.

Khrushchev apparently chose deliberately to answer that he has no new questions to bring up—only the old ones.

"In your speech today, have you offered any specifically new proposals that have not been put forward before for easing world tensions?"

In the speech Khrushchev had mentioned that he wanted to reach agreement with the United States on "easement of international tensions and abolition of the cold war, disarmament, a peace treaty with Germany, world trade and improvement of relations between our two countries."

THE SECOND QUERY which did not get a full answer from Chairman Khrushchev related to increased U. S.-U.S.S.R. trade: "What particularly do you want to buy from us and what particularly do you wish to sell us?"

American interpreters again confirm that the question was correctly translated into Russian. But Chairman Khrushchev chose deliberately not to answer the question directly, though this was a golden opportunity.

His full reply is too long to repeat here "begging for something from Uncle Sam." Russia could produce anything the U. S. could produce and on some things had produced them first.

No one from the Soviet ministry of foreign trade had been included in his party, said Khrushchev. But if there was any desire to conduct negotiations, they would be forthcoming.

"Well, one cannot think up new problems," Khrushchev replied. "We must first settle the problems that have already arisen and are ripe for solution. And we should not divert ourselves to discussing secondary questions until the fundamental ones have been settled. Therefore, I would agree if someone were to say I did not put forward any new questions in my speech. But as they say,

'repetition is the mother of knowledge.'

Area Events Scheduled

(Notices of meetings, suppers and other events to be listed in this column should be sent to the City Editor, Kingston Daily Freeman as far in advance as possible.)

Today

5:30 p. m.—Trinity Methodist Church turkey dinner, church hall, Wurts and Hunter Streets, sponsored by Methodist men. Public invited.

6:30 p. m.—Saugerties Rotary Club, Katsbaan Inn.

7:30 p. m.—King's Daughters, Ponckhockie Congregational Church, plastic and toy party, Sunday school rooms, 93 Abrun Street. Public invited.

7:45 p. m.—WSCS, Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, Epworth parlors.

8 p. m.—Hurley Reformed Church Women's Guild fashion show, Hurley Fire Hall.

West Hurley P-TA meeting, school hall.

Town of Rosendale Republican Club meeting, Grange Hall, Alexander Bano, supervisor, Town of Ulster, to speak.

Ulster County Democratic Women's Club meeting, Hotel Kingston.

Beta Sigma Phi, Gamma Chi Chapter, home of Miss Agnes Wilkie, 4 Ponckhockie Street.

United Commercial Travelers of America and Auxiliary, Elks Club, Fair Street.

10 a. m.—Sisterhood of Agudas Achim rummage sale, 70 Broadway, until 5 p. m.

12 noon—Kingston Hospital Auxiliary first fall executive committee meeting, nurses residence.

Kingston Rotary Club, Governor Clinton Hotel.

1:30 p. m.—Ladies' Auxiliary, Tillison Volunteer Fire Co., at firehouse.

5:30 p. m.—St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Hasbrouck Avenue, cafeteria supper, church hall, until all are served. Public invited.

Wednesday, Sept. 23

6:30 p. m.—Hurley Lions Club, SRS, Cottekill.

7:30 p. m.—Kingston Composite Squadron Civil Air Patrol, at U. S. Army Reserve Center, Flatbush Avenue.

8 p. m.—Ladies' Auxiliary, Rosendale Fire Department, card party at firehouse.

P-TA of Port Ewen School, meeting at school.

Marbletown School P-TF Club, school cafeteria.

9 p. m.—Young Adults Club dance, Tropical Inn, Port Ewen, with music by the Four Knights. All un-married non-members invited.

Thursday, Sept. 24

9 a. m.—Lent Circle of WSCS, St. James Methodist Church, rummage sale in basement of church, Pearl and Fair Streets, until 3 p. m.

10 a. m.—Sisterhood of Agudas Achim rummage sale, 70 Broadway, until 5 p. m.

12 noon—Kingston Kiwanis Club, Governor Clinton Hotel.

2 p. m.—Music Appreciation Group, First Baptist Church.

5:30 p. m.—Ladies' Aid of Ponckhockie Congregational Church cafeteria supper, hall.

6:45 p. m.—Rondout Valley Lions Club, SRS, Cottekill.

7:30 p. m.—Gateway Industries, Inc., Governor Clinton Hotel. Election of officers.

8 p. m.—Church school of Franklin Street AME Zion Church to present the Rev. Joseph M. Eldridge, pastor of Christ AME Zion Church, in organ recital.

Court Santa Maria, Catholic Daughters, card party at 14 Henry Street. Public invited.

Woodstock Democratic town caucus, town hall.

Atharacton Rebekah Lodge, 367, regular meeting, Odd Fellows Hall. Nomination and election of officers.

Y-Wives of the YWCA, cake decoration demonstration, YWCA, 209 Clinton Avenue.

St. Ann's Altar and Rosary Society, St. Ann's Parish Hall.

Friday, Sept. 25

9 a. m.—Lent Circle of WSCS, St. James Methodist Church, rummage sale in basement of church, Pearl and Fair Streets, until 3 p. m.

5 p. m.—Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, Franklin Street AME Zion Church, chicken dinner, home of Mrs. Charles Marable Sr., 90 Farrelly Street, until 8 p. m.

8 p. m.—Charles DeWitt Council, 91, JOUAM, Mechanics Hall, 14 Henry Street.

King's Knight Chess Club, Hotel Kingston, room 210.

Saturday, Sept. 26

10 a. m.—Ladies' Aid and Mis-

APPLIANCES

WESTINGHOUSE

HOUSEWARES

KITCHEN UTENSILS

Lawn Products

SCOTT'S

HARDWARE

NAME BRANDS

PAINTS

DUPONT

OPEN 'til 9

SATURDAY 'til 5

J. ELLIS BRIGGS, Inc.

SAUGERTIES ROAD — KINGSTON FE 1-7072
AIR CONDITIONED

BIG WHEEL!

Yes, 1,200,000 big wheels—school children—have $55,000,000 on deposit in the Savings Banks of New York State...money invested to help build homes, highways, schools, religious buildings, create jobs and prosperity in the "Empire State."

Who else but your Savings Banks start our school-agers out on the ways of saving—make thrift a habit that sticks throughout the grown-up years?

Somehow this is the sort of vision you expect from your Savings Bank. For this is a very special breed of bank.

Your Savings Bank works only for its depositors. All earnings, after providing for expenses and reserves to protect the savings, come back to depositors in generous dividends. There are no stockholders. This is why Savings Banks are called "mutual" banks.

Yes, a special breed of bank is your Savings Bank. A few other statistics further prove it!

Savings Banks finance more New York homes than all other financial institutions put together. Some 4,375,000 New Yorkers, more than one quarter of the State's population, live in these homes.

There are 20 billion dollars on deposit in New York State Savings Banks—most of it invested right here in this state. Savings Bank savings create jobs and prosperity at home.

2 out of 3 New York Staters save in Savings Banks. Every single account, no matter how modest, gets V. I. P. treatment.

No other financial institution serves the individual saver and the community like the Savings Banks of New York State. Your Savings Bank—a very special breed of bank, indeed!

...the banks where your money works only for you

Your Mutual Savings Banks in Kingston Are

KINGSTON
SAVINGS BANK

273 Wall St.

RONDOUT
SAVINGS BANK

26 Broadway

ULSTER COUNTY SAVINGS INSTITUTION

280 Wall St.

Guest Speaker Is Named for Port Ewen Businessmen

Robert E. Barron, business consultant of the New York State Department of Commerce, will be guest speaker at the first fall meeting of the Port Ewen Businessmen's Association Thursday 8 p. m. at the Port Ewen Firehall, Broadway.

His topic will be on potentialities of business in the Port Ewen area. A good attendance of members is anticipated.

A meeting of the board of governors will precede the main program.

Shokan

SHOKAN — Edith Holt and Marion Harding, teachers in the art and music departments, respectively, at the New Paltz State Teachers College, were in Shokan Saturday. The two women were accompanied by Mrs. O. L. Harding, also of New Paltz.

Wesley Davis, his wife and son of Port Jervis, near Oneonta, were local callers Saturday.

Everett Ballard, 75, Kingston man who died Sept. 14, formerly was well known in this section where he was born and brought up, son of Sherman and Cora Winchell Ballard. He married the former Jennie Markle, a daughter of Clarence and Julia Barton Markle, Shokan.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hoza, Whitfield couple, whose home is one of the old stone houses along the mountaintop, were callers in the village center Sunday.

A dock and a beach are new features of Temple's Pond which is now owned by the Pitcairn family.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Scholotter's sister, Helen Bowen, all of Saugerties were in Shokan Saturday.

John Scheiner, New York, spent the weekend with his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sorenson.

Work on the new Bennett 14-room elementary school at Boiceville has been slowed down as a result of the steel strike. It had been planned to have the schoolhouse ready for use next January.

Recent callers here included Mrs. James E. Campbell, Harrison Avenue, Delmar. Mrs. Campbell collects antique buttons as a hobby.

Democratic committeemen of Olive reportedly have named Gordon Miller, Shokan, as their choice for town superintendent of highways.

Mrs. Thomas L. McNierny, the former Virginia Lewis of Olive Bridge, is spending some time with her mother, Delia Lewis. Mrs. McNierny and her husband reside at Sunapee, S. C., where Thomas is stationed at Shaw Field Air Force Base.

It took Herbert Buckley Jr., of Hancock half an hour to land a 26-inch brown trout. The 8-pounder is believed to be the largest ever taken from the East Branch of the Delaware River.

38th Day Minus Rain

LONDON (AP) — London has gone 38 days without measurable rain—the longest dry spell since the city, famous for rain, began keeping records.

Stocks, Bonds Course

Investment principles, first term—This course leads to an understanding of how stocks and bonds are traded and how markets are made. The subject matter is treated from the point of view of business management and from that of the small investor. Business management topics include: Acquisition of capital through stock and bond sales, the stock market, and investment in physical assets. Individual investor topics include: Evaluation of business stability and long and short term investment.

Investment principles II, second term—This course designed for those who already have a basic knowledge of investment principles. Topics include: analysis of financial statements, fixed income securities, valuation of common stock; Senior securities with speculative features, and security analysis in action.

Secretarial accounting—First Term—This course in secretarial accounting has been prepared to meet the accounting needs of experienced secretaries, stenographers aspiring to secretarial positions and secretaries wishing to take the C. P. S. examination in accounting.

Law for secretaries—Second Term—This course in law for secretaries has been prepared to meet the accounting needs of experienced secretaries, stenographers.

The high rate of turn-ins.

The Treasury expects to make the new rate applicable as of June 1 on bonds already outstanding as well as new ones. There are some 40 million savings bond holders.

"E" bonds are those bought at less than face value and maturing within a stated period so as to return a set interest rate. "H" bonds are bought at face value and pay interest periodically on that amount.

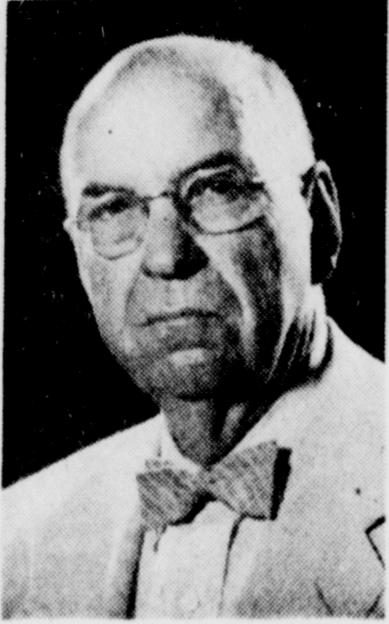

The 4½ per cent limit on long-term marketable bonds has been in effect since the Woodrow Wilson administration.

The side of a coin or medal which bears the principal design is called the obverse.

Republican Leaders, Dinner Chairman

Kenneth L. Wilson
County Chairman

John B. Sterley
City Leader

Frank W. Hommel
Dinner Chairman

Registration

furnished by the school will be sold at cost.

The program director also pointed out today that students enrolled in public or private secondary schools will not be admitted to the adult classes.

New Courses Planned

New courses planned for this year are:

Basic statistical quality control—the basic training course in quality control by statistical methods will cover natural variations, frequency distribution, control charts, and statistical sampling plans for inspection. Use of Mil Standard 105A and the Dodge-Romig sampling tables will be explained. It will be presented in a form suitable for production foremen, inspectors, product engineers, and supervisors. Actual problems in mechanical, electrical, printing, and other industries will be used to illustrate the methods.

Civil Defense—Self help and neighbor help for the injured—first term—5 sessions—A short introductory course in first aid which will enable a person to help himself, members of his family, or neighbors until medical help can be obtained. For both male and female over 14 years of age.

Civil Defense—Medical aides in aid stations—first term—8 sessions prerequisite. Standard first aid course or its equivalent. How an aid station is set up and how it operates; elementary and nursing procedures performed by medical aides in aid stations; basic information on records, supplies and communications.

Civil Defense. Monitoring fallout radiation, first term—8 sessions to provide instructions for Civil Defense monitors; elementary radiation physics and bomb phenomenology; nuclear radiation, its kinds, properties, and measuring devices, and effects on its intensity due to distance and shielding; use of CD radiation monitoring instruments; use of UTM coordinated in locating points reported, and use of phonetic alphabet. Radiation dose effects, maximum permissible dosages; spot monitoring and acceptable radiation levels. No registration fee for Civil Defense classes.

Stocks, Bonds Course

Investment principles, first term—This course leads to an understanding of how stocks and bonds are traded and how markets are made. The subject matter is treated from the point of view of business management and from that of the small investor. Business management topics include: Acquisition of capital through stock and bond sales, the stock market, and investment in physical assets. Individual investor topics include: Evaluation of business stability and long and short term investment.

Investment principles II, second term—This course designed for those who already have a basic knowledge of investment principles. Topics include: analysis of financial statements, fixed income securities, valuation of common stock; Senior securities with speculative features, and security analysis in action.

Secretarial accounting—First Term—This course in secretarial accounting has been prepared to meet the accounting needs of experienced secretaries, stenographers.

The high rate of turn-ins.

The Treasury expects to make the new rate applicable as of June 1 on bonds already outstanding as well as new ones. There are some 40 million savings bond holders.

"E" bonds are those bought at less than face value and maturing within a stated period so as to return a set interest rate. "H" bonds are bought at face value and pay interest periodically on that amount.

The 4½ per cent limit on long-term marketable bonds has been in effect since the Woodrow Wilson administration.

The side of a coin or medal which bears the principal design is called the obverse.

Registration

raphers aspiring to secretarial positions and secretaries wishing to take the C. P. S. examination in law.

Will Teach Spanish

Spanish I—First Term—The main stress of this beginner's course is on speaking Spanish. Short conversations will be practiced in groups and individually and finally memorized. Grammatical questions will be answered as they come up in connection with this oral work. Finally, reading will be introduced and will help to review and enlarge the student's vocabulary.

Spanish II—second term—This intermediate course is based on Spanish I. Oral and grammar work will be continued, and more time will be given to the reading of Spanish. Spanish films will be used to acquaint the student with contemporary Spain and students will listen to Spanish records.

High school subjects—More and more a high school education is becoming a minimal educational experience. There have been a number of requests for a variety of subjects leading to high school graduation. Credit for such courses will be granted toward a high school diploma. If you are interested, let us know what subjects you need. If the enrollment warrants it, classes will be formed. Meeting time to be arranged.

The adult education bulletin listing the proposed courses for the fall and winter terms of the school year 1959-60 is now available and will be sent to anyone upon request.

Director Hodderath said: "As the schools open this year we invite you to join in their activities. We need to learn in order to live; we must learn in order to grow."

Chairman

Chairman of the 1959 dinner of the Ulster County Republican Committee is Frank W. Hommel of Saugerties.

He said preliminary plans for the dinner were outlined at a meeting of GOP county committeemen.

"We are arranging for an outstanding guest speaker," Chairman Hommel said. State, county and local candidates will be introduced.

Funds raised through the dinner will be used to help finance the November election campaign of the Republicans.

Suicide Possible,

passenger-cargo ship Utrecht (AP) closing livestock.

Steers and heifers—two loads of southerners arrived. Market not established. Dairy type slaughter cattle—Trading slow, market steady to 50 cents lower. Standard cows 18.50-19.50, extreme top 20.00. Good dairy heifers 21.00-22.50.

Calves: Demand moderate, market about steady. Prime 39.00-41.00; good and choice 35.00-38.00. Hogs: Demand good, market steady. U. S. No. 1-3 butchers 180-200 lbs 13.75-14.50; selected meat type 200-230 lbs 14.50-15.00, extreme top 15.25.

Sheep & lambs: Demand good, market steady. Choice wooled spring lambs 22.00-22.50; good and choice 21.00-22.00.

Livestock Prices

BUFFALO, N. Y. (NYSDA)—

(AP) Closing livestock.

Steers and heifers—two loads of southerners arrived. Market not established. Dairy type slaughter cattle—Trading slow, market steady to 50 cents lower. Standard cows 18.50-19.50, extreme top 20.00. Good dairy heifers 21.00-22.50.

Calves: Demand moderate, market about steady. Prime 39.00-41.00; good and choice 35.00-38.00. Hogs: Demand good, market steady. U. S. No. 1-3 butchers 180-200 lbs 13.75-14.50; selected meat type 200-230 lbs 14.50-15.00, extreme top 15.25.

Sheep & lambs: Demand good, market steady. Choice wooled spring lambs 22.00-22.50; good and choice 21.00-22.00.

Egg Market

NEW YORK (AP) — (USDA)—

Wholesale egg offerings light. Demand fair. Receipts 17,000.

Wholesale selling prices based on exchange and other volume sales.

New York spot quotations, including nearby:

Whites—Top quality (48-50 lbs) 33-37; medium 37-38; smalls 23-24; peewees 17-18.

Browns—Top quality (48-50 lbs) 33-34; medium 35-36; smalls 23-24; peewees 17-18.

Butter Prices

NEW YORK (AP) — (USDA)—

Butter offerings moderate. Demand fair. Receipts 495,000.

Wholesale prices on bulk cartons (fresh).

Creamery, 93 score (AA) 65-65½ cents; 92 score (A) 66-64½ cents; 90 score (B) 63½-64.

Cheese steady. Receipts 180,000. Prices unchanged.

Charcoal

is the chief domestic fuel in most tropical countries.

Ike Approves

the high rate of turn-ins.

The Treasury expects to make the new rate applicable as of June 1 on bonds already outstanding as well as new ones. There are some 40 million savings bond holders.

"E" bonds are those bought at less than face value and maturing within a stated period so as to return a set interest rate. "H" bonds are bought at face value and pay interest periodically on that amount.

The 4½ per cent limit on long-term marketable bonds has been in effect since the Woodrow Wilson administration.

The side of a coin or medal which bears the principal design is called the obverse.

Walt Disney's True Life Adventures

TRICKS of the TRADE

A BEAVER OBSERVES THAT HIS DAM SHOWS SIGNS OF WEAKNESS.

SO HE BUILDS A SECOND DAM BELOW IT. THE WATER WHICH THEN IS BACKED UP SUPPORTS THE MAIN STRUCTURE.

Walt Disney Productions
© 1959

'Draft Rocky' Club Starting To Take Shape

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—The "Draft Rockefeller for President in '60" Club here now has a promotion committee and campaign buttons.

It held its organizational meeting Monday night and about 30 persons showed up. Romolo Versaci, leader of the movement and president of the Schenectady County Young Republican Club, was named chairman of a 13-member committee to promote the drive. Campaign buttons were distributed.

Versaci said in a statement he was "sure that many citizens in every city, town and hamlet of the Empire State and the United States in general, regardless of their political leanings, will join with us in a concerted effort to draft our extremely able and widely knowledgeable young governor, Nelson A. Rockefeller, as a candidate for the presidency of these United States."

Rockefeller refuses to say at this time whether he is or is not a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Roman Rockefeller, a son of the governor, spoke last week at a meeting of the Young Republican Club headed by Versaci. No public mention of the draft movement was made at that meeting.

Watkins Glen Votes Curfew for Youths

WATKINS GLEN, N. Y. (AP)—There'll be new authority and new rope attached to the curfew bell in this Schuyler County community beginning Oct. 1.

The village board voted unanimously Monday night to re-establish a 9-year-old curfew ordinance for youths 16 years and under.

The ordinance was adopted in 1950, but was not actively enforced after a few years when the bell's rope was broken.

A spokesman for the board said the action was of a precautionary nature and not the result of local youth problems.

Beginning next month, children will not be permitted on the streets after 10 p. m. Parents of violators will be subject to fines up to $25.

Special school functions, such as dances, sports events and parties, are excepted.

A warning toll will be rung at 9:45 p. m., followed by the final curfew ring 15 minutes later.

Civil Service Employees

The regular monthly meeting of the Ulster County Chapter, Civil Service Employees Association will be held on Monday Sept. 28 at the Board of Public Works luncheon, East O'Reilly Street, at 8 p. m. The banquet will be at the Barn Saturday, Sept. 26 at 7 p. m.

AMERICAN MENU

Budget Dishes Can Supply Delicious Fare for Family

This is the eighth in a special series of 12 articles on "Better Meals Build Better Families."

Unseen ingredient in this budget dish, a frankfurter skillet, is a flavor that can be added only through fun of family dining.

By GAYNOR MADDOX,

NEA Food and Markets Editor

Eleanore Lurrie, administrator of the Home Economics Program of New York City Department of Welfare, has been trying for 25 years to upgrade family meals in relief homes. "We have found that better organization in handling home problems, with emphasis on buying, cooking and serving food to the family, results generally in families with fewer tensions, less trouble with neighbors and a better rating as housing project tenants," she said, in her immaculate office overlooking the Hudson River.

The Department of Welfare trains homemakers into relief homes to help carry on when the mother is absent because of illness. Miss Lurrie reports that after these trained women have shown the family how to use their small food budget along nutritional lines, and serve a meal that is good to eat and good to look at, there is a positive advance in family relations. Of course this takes time and taxpayers' money. But it results in more adjusted family groups, better health and the likelihood that the family will soon be stable and ambitious enough to get off relief.

"Yes, I'd say from my experience that better meals do build better families," she added. "A 'better meal' must have three characteristics she explained.

• A. Be nutritionally adequate even though the amount of money available for food is limited and the menu simple.

• B. Be well-prepared. Whether it is a stew, or meat loaf, a pot roast or a fish dish, there is a good way to cook it. Just any old way won't do.

• Mealtime must be a happy time. Miss Lurrie described to us what her trained assistants teach relief homemakers.

1. The table should be large enough for the entire family.

2. There must be an adequate supply of knives and forks and basic eating equipment. They can be plastic or stainless steel, if necessary.

3. The table should have suitable clean covering. It can be paper, oil cloth, cotton, or other material. The important thing is to have a clean place to eat for each member of the family.

4. Always have a center of interest on the table. It can be a pot plant, a candle, or a piece of bric-a-brac.

5. The entire family must participate in the meal. Let each member put in his two-cents' worth of what interesting things happened during the day. Avoid discussions of money, family problems and discipline. Keep the meal happy. It is probably the one time during the day the family is together.

"Any woman who can read a newspaper food column, a cookbook, or a woman's magazine can learn to cook if she wants to," she stated. "If women take their jobs as homemakers as seriously as their husbands take their business, there will be more and better fed families in the country — that usually means better families."

Frankfurters can be turned into a tempting dinner dish that will please and satisfy the family.

Spicy Frankfurter Skillet (Yield: 6 servings)

One-quarter cup butter or margarine, 4 large green peppers, 2 medium onions, thinly sliced; 4 small ripe tomatoes, quartered; 8 frankfurters, 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce, 1½ teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon aromatic bitters.

Melt butter in large, heavy skillet. Add green peppers which have been cut in lengthwise strips and sliced onions. Sauté until onions are transparent, stirring occasionally. Cut frankfurters into 1-inch pieces and add to skillet along with quartered tomatoes. Mix seasonings with tomato sauce and pour over all. Mix everything together lightly, cover skillet and simmer gently for 20 minutes. Serve hot from skillet with spaghetti, rice or noodles, and enriched bread, raw carrot sticks and celery, and a fruit dessert.

Hermit Takes Own Life

CHESUNCOOK LANE, Maine (AP)—A 75-year-old hermit killed a lumber operator, held a sheriff's posse at bay for six hours and finally committed suicide Monday night in his flaming wilderness cabin.

The hermit was identified as Hiram Johnson, who for 40 years lived alone in the cabin, subsisting off the land, trapping animals and cutting wood.

Chief Game Warden George Lester said Johnson killed Lester Spear, 49, as he tried to get the old man to discuss a complaint that Spear owed him $889 for work and for lumber.

In the past two years, newspaper publishers spent more than $150,000 to modernize their plants and equipment.

Now on Sale

T PAPER
5 lbs. 60¢

KINGSTON
DAILY FREEMAN

UPTOWN—237 Fair Street
DOWNTOWN—Freeman Square

Q. HOW MANY FOOD ITEMS CAN YOU CHOOSE FROM?

A. TYPICAL SUPERMARKET STOCKS UP TO 8000.

Your food store gives you the widest choice of foods with which to please every member of your family. Make your selections from the ads in today's newspaper.

BETTER MEALS BUILD BETTER FAMILIES

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The steel strike is starting to hurt. There are layoffs and slowdowns in output of steel users. But even more important perhaps, it is hurting in the planning rooms of corporations where it is regarded as a delayed bomb.

Stocks that may be ample enough to keep plants going for a few more weeks will have to be stretched not only until the strike ends but also over the period that it will take steel mills and fabricators to produce the required kind of steel.

So far there is no public sign that the strike is near an end. Each week it goes on makes it harder for users to plan future production because it often takes weeks to produce a special kind of steel after it is ordered.

The strike hurt some companies and their workers right from the start — coal mines and railroads serving steel mills and their customers.

Some Trade Supplies

Now shortages of some special kinds of steel are causing layoffs in some plants of users, even if their over-all supplies seem ample. Steel trading among plants has kept some going.

Some companies have turned to the costly business of converting hot rolled sheets and plates obtained from warehouses into cold rolled sheet to be plated with zinc or lead or tin.

Others have bought foreign steel, even if the price has been rising, and the supply tightening as of Western Europe steps up its own usage by industry.

The Department of Commerce says July imports of steel set a record at 430,000 tons, compared with the previous July's 173,179 tons. For eight straight months imports have exceeded exports.

Getting Serious

But imbalanced inventories are beginning to get serious, many companies will admit privately. One appliance maker says his company, in effect, is borrowing steel intended for production of 1960 models to finish off 1959 output of models that are selling well.

One steel authority says it will take some time after the strike for warehouses to rebuild their stocks and says many steel customers are drawing their stocks well below normal levels and must restock.

The strike's effects show up in official government statistics. Most of the available ones are for August and some show the effects also of the auto slowdowns for model changers.

But it's the next few weeks, not August, that's worrying businessmen and federal and state authorities. Each week the strike goes on, the farther off will full recovery be.

PTF to Resume Wednesday at 8

The first meeting of the Parent, Teachers and Friends Club of the Marbltown Elementary School, (Rondout Valley Central) will be held in the school cafeteria Wednesday, Sept. 23, at 8 p. m.

Regular PTF Club meetings are held throughout the year on the fourth Wednesday evening of each school month. This year's slate of officers is unusual in that it will be the first all male executive committee in the history of the club. Special effort will be made throughout the year to encourage fathers, as well as mothers, to attend PTF Club meetings.

The 1959-60 slate of officers is as follows: Irving Feinberg, president; Chester Davis, first vice-president; James Krom, second vice-president; John Basten, secretary and Herman Miller, treasurer.

The symbol of the Japanese emperor is a drawing of a chrysanthemum.

President's Spouse

ACROSS

2 Metal

3 Preposition

4 Living being (comb. form)

5 Unpaid balance

6 Iotas

7 Mountain nymphs

8 Pronoun

9 Seine

10 Phillip

11 Masculine appellation

12 Require 37 Symbol for 13 Caruso, for instance

14 Cuban province

15 Mongoloid

16 Disposed of in a will

17 Bustle

18 Girl's name

20 Seed

21 New Guinea container

22 Dibble

23 State

24 Rhomb lava

25 Dill

26 Waldorf and chef's, for instance

27 Box

29 Nautical term

30 Girl's toy

31 Hardens

33 Symbol for 34 Minced oath

35 Primitive implement

36 Rounded

37 Inures

41 Legal point

42 Craggy hill

43 Viper

46 Fly

48 Duct (anat.)

51 Bent

54 Run away

56 She taught her to read and write

57 Lift

58 Sudden nasal irritations

59 Command

DOWN

1 Feminine appellation

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

36

37

38

39

40

41

42

43

THE
NEW YORK
Herald Tribune
RADIO NETWORK

PRESENTS IN PERSON THURSDAY AND FRIDAY (SEPT. 24-25)

GABBY HAYES

one of America's best-loved movie and TV stars, is an outdoor man and skilled in Woodlore. A native of Wellesville, New York, Gabby enjoys meeting his vast audiences of children and adults as much as they enjoy him.

MARIE TORRE

beautiful and brilliant newspaper-woman who recently made news as "the girl who would not talk" is considered one of the outstanding reporters in her field as Assistant Editor of the Herald-Tribune TV Magazine, plus TV columnist. It's a pleasure to welcome this talented lady to Kingston!

See Gabby Hayes Drive a Stagecoach from City Hall to the Wall Street Business Section Thursday Morning, leaving City Hall at 10:30. Gabby will ride on the stagecoach from Carson City.

You can visit with GABBY HAYES AND MARIE TORRE during their visit to KINGSTON and SAUGERTIES at the place and time designated below:

GABBY HAYES

Thursday Afternoon — Saugerties

2 to 2:30 p. m. — Saugerties National Bank & Trust Co.
 2:30 to 3 p. m. — Saugerties Savings Bank
 3 to 3:30 p. m. — Amrod's Dept. Store
 3:30 to 4 p. m. — Clum's
 4 to 4:30 p. m. — London's Dept. Store

Thursday Evening — Kingston

6 to 8 p. m. — A & P Supermarket
 Friday — September 25th
 4 to 6 p. m. — Montgomery Ward, Toy Dept.
 6:30 to 8 p. m. — Savings & Loan Assn. of Kingston
 8:30 to 9 p. m. — Bob Steele's Auction

MARIE TORRE

Friday Afternoon — Saugerties

2:45 to 3:45 — M. G. Banks

Friday — September 25

4 to 6 p. m. — Montgomery Ward, Toy Dept.
 6:30 to 8 p. m. — Wonderly's
 8:30 to 9 p. m. — Bob Steele's Auction

FREE: GIFTS AND SOUVENIRS FOR ALL CHILDREN AND LADIES AT EACH OF THE ABOVE PLACES OF VISIT!

GABBY HAYES AND MARIE TORRE ARE APPEARING AS GUESTS OF

92 on your dial

KINGSTON AND SAUGERTIES, N. Y.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

SOCIETIES • CLUBS • PERSONALS

Couple Married 50 Years Renew Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Sabatino Ramundo of 37 Demarest Avenue, West Haverstraw, formerly of East Kingston, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, Sept. 5, with a dinner party.

The party was given by their 13 children and was attended by more than 150 guests including relatives and friends. Among those attending was Mrs. J. Saccoman of Kingston, who had served as maid of honor at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramundo were married in St. Colman's Church, East Kingston. They moved to their present address during the mid-1930's. Mr. Ramundo is retired.

The couple renewed their vows before a High Mass celebrated at St. Joseph Church, Grassy Point, Saturday, Sept. 5 at 8 a.m. The Rev. Joseph Smith was celebrant.

The occasion also marked the first time since 1951 that the 13 children were reunited with their parents all at one time. All 27 grandchildren attended except Nick Ryder of Haverstraw who is attending the University of Miami. He sent his grandmother a corsage of roses and a floral centerpiece.

Rondout Presbyterian

Rondout Presbyterian Church Service Club will meet in Fellowship Hall, Monday, Sept. 28 at 8 p.m. A full attendance is requested.

Sentiment Is Needed By All Says Noted Card Illustrator

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

Sentiment never goes out of style, says Henrietta Strong, known to her friends and a few million sentimental Americans as Brownie.

Proof of her statement is the story of her life, most of which has been spent marketing sentiment in mass quantities. While still in school Brownie started illustrating letters to her friends, decorating them with birds and flowers and including bits of philosophy in verse.

Today her greeting cards and decorated "conversation cards" are sold all over the United States and Canada in astronomical numbers, and soon will be distributed in England, Germany, France, Italy, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, with verses translated in the language of the country.

"I just don't feel that people really like these macabre, super-sophisticated 'studio' cards that seem to be the current rage," says Miss Strong, looking pensively out the window of her skyscraper office in mid-town Manhattan. "If you want to send a card to a friend, why send an insulting one? This is a kind of humor I don't understand, and I predict it will be short-lived."

On the other hand, Brownie's sentimental cards have been selling in landslide quantities for more than 30 years, with sales increasing in the midst of the greeting-insult fad.

She turned out her first collection of Christmas cards in 1926, cutting the designs on linoleum blocks and printing them with the aid of a hand-turned clothes wringer. She also turns out decorated paper napkins, table mats, guest towels and such. Says she:

"I guess one reason the business in a success is that I love every minute of it. I'm not ashamed of being sentimental. I believe sentiment is something of which there's all too little in our busy modern world."

FOR SALE
10 ROOM HOUSE
14 ACRES
Price $18,000
EASY TERMS
CALL DAYS OL 8-4661

Portable Record Players
Saccoman's
JEWELERS
580 BROADWAY
PHONE FE 1-6770

FLORISTS PLAN CONVENTION — Members of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association in this area met at a dinner recently to plan for an FTC Unit convention which will be conducted at the Governor Clinton Hotel on Sunday, Nov. 15. Among those attending the preliminary meeting were seated (l-r) Simon Weaver of Detroit; Mrs. Doris Remis, Schenectady; Edward Smith, Glens Falls; Donald J.

Closs, Rhinebeck; and Mrs. Evelyn Smith, Glens Falls. Rear (l-r) Miss Felicia Parisella, Poughkeepsie; Mark Frederick, Schenectady; Mrs. Donald J. Closs, Rhinebeck; Mrs. Louis de Felicis, Kingston; Louis de Felicis, Kingston. Mr. de Felicis has been named co-chairman of the November event along with Mr. Closs of Rhinebeck. (Freeman photo)

KINGSTONIANS AT CONVENTION — Mrs. Jay Melton, president of the Kingston Chapter of Hadassah, and Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, native Kingstonian and Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, chat at the recent national Hadassah convention in St. Louis, Mo., where Flemming was a featured speaker.

Music Students Offered Opportunity To Try for Scholarship Auditions Soon

Music students throughout the United States are invited to participate in the 1959 Scholarship Auditions to be conducted by the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, according to an announcement made by Dr. Arthur W. Wolf, dean of the 75 year old music college.

The Conservatory Scholarship Program is maintained to discover outstanding music talent throughout the U. S., by means of expertly judged auditions, and to develop this talent through the facilities of the Conservatory for the purpose of giving ample opportunity for musically talented persons to attain their goals.

The auditions are conducted to choose musically talented students to fill one, two and four year academic scholarships, fellowships in the graduate school and special one year scholarships, according to the needs of the student. Scholarship training leads to the Bachelor of Music degree. Fellowships are granted in the graduate school with courses leading to the Master of Music degree or Post Graduate Diploma.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Mme Rosina Lhevinne, Richard Crooks, Joseph Szigeti and Miklos Rosza are the distinguished musicians and artists that make up the Auditon Board and grants will be made on the basis of performance merit in audition.

Preliminary auditions will be held Nov. 2 through Nov. 6 and may be accomplished in person or by tape recording. Applicants submitting tape recordings for the first audition will be promptly notified of the judge's decision and recordings must be received by the judges no later than Oct. 31.

Final auditions will be held the latter part of December. Students qualifying for final auditions will be notified three weeks in advance of final audition date. Final auditions must be made in person.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by either phoning or writing the dean's office at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, 8901 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles 46, Calif.

Although high school seniors are eligible, applicants must have graduated from an accredited high school and have had at least three years training in their specific field of applied music under a competent instructor prior to starting scholarship training.

Miss Mary Miller Feted at Shower

A surprise bridal shower was given in honor of Mary Miller on September 12. Serving as hostesses were the Misses Frederick Miller, Robert Mertine, Loughran Struber and Miss Lina Rosenkrans.

Among those attending were the Misses L. Miller, Miron Rosenkrans, William Tozzi, Albert Lewis, Daniel Bollin, Frank Konhout, Walter Sterling, Charles Tozzi, Nicholas Tozzi, Jake Ennis, Nicholas Rizzotto, Joseph Hasbrouck, John Miller, Victor Rizzotto, George Struber, Laura Stokes, Anthony Rizzotto and Mary Matteo.

Also attending were the Misses Carolyn Gould, Mary Tozzi and Marion Tozzi.

Gifts were also received from the Misses Stanley Abramson, Jack Grant, Robert Abramson, Daniel Miller, Frank Williams, Robert Marks and Miss Anne Miller.

Miss Miller will wed Richard Rosenkrans October 3 at the New Paltz Methodist Church.

Osterhoudt-Duyt Wedding Is Told

Miss Aneta Osterhoudt of Kripplebush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royalston Osterhoudt, wed Walter Duyt of High Falls on Monday, September 14 at Stone Ridge.

Officiating was Justice of the Peace Harry Scarpati.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Duyt will reside at High Falls.

Meeting Thursday

The first meeting of the season for the Board of Managers at Home for the Aged will be held Thursday, 2 p.m.

A large attendance is requested.

ADVERTISEMENT

WEATHER FORECAST: CHANGEABLE

Kingston, N. Y., Sept. 22 — This is the safest forecast we could arrive at. We went from sweltering heat and "comfortable air conditioning" to chilly days and "comfortable heating". What next? Indian Summer and air conditioning? Well, an economical touch up with permanent curls in the nape of the neck will solve your hair comfort problem. Visit us soon.

MICKEY'S BEAUTY SHOP, 50 N. Front St., Dial FE 8-3275. Closed Mondays. Open Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Hair-Styling to flatter you!

Anne O'Connor Murphy

Clem Schleede, Dorothy Prosser, Helen Burton

ANNE'S Beauty Shop 86 Foxhall Ave. FE 8-4646
Open Thurs. Evening, Too:

at BUTLER'S (On 28A) to 40% off!

... on Bedroom Suites
... on Livingroom Suites
... on Modern Sectionals
... on Dining Room Suites
... on Odd Chairs

to 50% off!

... on Tables & Lamps

Prices on quality merchandise are Always Guaranteed
Better — at BUTLER'S.

Now . . . they're better than ever! . . . to clear floor samples etc. for space in our showrooms for new fall merchandise arriving daily.

COMPARE - You'll Buy and Save - at ## Butler's Furniture Co.

on Route 28A in West Hurley

(7 saving miles from Kingston)

Better Budget Terms if desired.

Open 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. — Closed Sundays & Mondays.

FIVE GENERATIONS GET TOGETHER—
Pausing for a rare photograph of five generations are (l-r) Mrs. Marietta Van DeBogart, 94, Mrs. Everett Buley, Benjamin Buley and Mrs.

Robert Kelder. Mrs. Van DeBogart holds four-month-old Debbie Ann Kelder, the fifth generation in the family. All are residents of Woodstock.

PREPARE FOR SATURDAY BALL—Members of the Kingston Power Boat Association and Ladies' Auxiliary are busy making decorations for the Hudson-Champlain Celebration Ball to be held Saturday night at the Governor Clinton Hotel. Hard at work at (l-r) Theodore Riccobono, Margaret Riccobono, Del Kinkade, Mrs. Charles Cole and Rita Kinkade. The committee is planning to give the ball a realistic nautical look. Music for dancing will be by Wendell Scherer and his band.

Democratic Women Will Sponsor Special School for Inspectors on September 29

Democratic election inspectors will go to school September 29 to study the latest changes in voting procedures.

The Ulster County Democratic Committee and the Ulster County Democratic Women's Division are sponsoring a "School for Inspectors" Tuesday, Sept. 29 at the Hotel Kingston, John and Fair Streets, this city.

The meeting will begin promptly at 8 p.m. with a skit prepared by the Women's Division of Democratic State Committee. Mrs. Hennessey has been holding similar schools in many parts of the State, and is well qualified to discuss these subjects.

Following Mrs. Hennessey's talk, there will be a question and answer period.

William A. Kelly, Democratic Chairman and former clerk of the Board of Elections; Norman Kellar, secretary of the County Committee, and Frank Martocci, clerk of the Board of Elections, will join Mrs. Hennessey to answer questions from the floor.

All interested Democrats are invited to attend, including City and Town Chairmen, Committee men and candidates.

"It is important that as many Democrats as possible attend this meeting so that no eligible voter is deprived of his vote, and no ineligible voter allowed to vote," said Mrs. Harriet Allen Kerr, president of the Women's Division.

Among those taking part in the skit will be: Mrs. Evelyn Lucas, Mrs. Marie Green, Mrs. Margaret Eckert of Ellenville, Mrs. Ruth Heider of Gardiner, Mrs. Edna Hoyt of Mt. Pleasant, Mrs. Margaret Marshall of Accord, Mrs. Frances McKeown of Rosendale, Mrs. Everett Coty of Napanoch, Mrs. Coty and Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Catherine Carlson, Shokan; Mayor Edwin F. Radel, Orrie Riehl, Mrs. Florence Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hastings, Kingston.

Club Notices

Little Gardens Club

Little Gardens Club will hold a luncheon-meeting Friday, 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. J. Carroll in Hurley.

Civil Air Patrol

Kingston Composite Squadron, Civil Air Patrol, will meet Wednesday, 7:30 p.m. in the new United States Army Reserve Center on Flatbush Avenue. Emphasis will be placed on cadet renewals, and a briefing on rules and regulations in connection with the use of the new facilities. All personnel are urged to be present.

Court Santa Maria

Court Santa Maria, Catholic Daughters, will meet Thursday at 14 Henry Street, for a card party. Public is invited. Refreshments will be served.

Lyric Choristers

Lyric Choristers will meet Wednesday, 8 p.m., at the Glenford Church, Route 28, Glenford.

Rummage Sales

St. James Methodist Lent Circle of the WSCS of St. James Methodist Church, Pearl and Fair Streets, will sponsor a rummage sale, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 24-25 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the basement of the church. Public is invited.

Wilkie Is Named Division Leader Of Chest Drive

The appointment of John E. Wilkie, local attorney, to head the professional division in the Kingston Area Community Chest's Red Feather campaign was announced today by W. Henry Haltermann, general chairman.

The campaign, combining the annual fund appeals of 10 separate community services, will kick-off Sept. 28. Goal is $137,500.

Wilkie, whose law office is at 78 Main Street is a charter member of the Community Chest's board of directors, a member of the Kiwanis Club, and member of the Salvation Army Advisory Board. He received his BS degree from Haverford (Pa.) College, and his law degree from University of Connecticut School of Law at Hartford, Conn. During World War 2, he served with the U. S. Transportation Corps in England and France, and was instructor in the department of commerce at the American University in Biarritz, France. He is married, has two children, and resides in Stone Ridge.

The professional division this year has the responsibility for soliciting dentists, doctors and attorneys residing in the Community Chest area.

Mrs. K Eludes Motorcade, Has Day in Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — State Department officials helped Nina Khrushchev dodge reporters and crowds Monday for a few hours of calm shopping and a chance to look at a school.

Her day on the town, as a result, was a quiet contrast to that of her husband, the Soviet Premier.

Slipping out of the official Khrushchev motorcade in a sleek maroon car, Mrs. Khrushchev and her small entourage eluded their own local police escort. They were off for more than three hours before newsmen located them. But she was escorted by her own security guard through- out.

Go to Sears Store

Even security officials were looking for the ladies, said Clement Conger, deputy chief of protocol, who was on in the ruse.

Rumors had spread about where they might go and a crowd of some 500 gathered to wait outside I. Magnin & Co., San Francisco's biggest exclusive women's store.

Mrs. Khrushchev went instead to a Sears Roebuck store, where she spent $150 buying clothes for grandchildren — just born and expected.

The outing, lasting from about 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., took her and the Khrushchev daughters, Rada and Julia, over the famous Golden Gate bridge, through a Chinese section of the city and into the suburbs.

They paused at 2:15 p.m. for a late lunch at Trader Vic's, a swank restaurant often frequented by San Francisco socialites.

It was after lunch that the private journey ended. As the party set out for an hour and a half drive, a 10-car motorcade of newspaper people screeched red lights and up the steep hills after two years.

Nomination for the office of town clerk went to Mrs. Anne Ryerson of Canal Street, Port Ewen and John F. Fitzgerald of Connell was chosen candidate for the office of tax collector.

Eyrnes A. Terpening of Ritten, with 14 years experience working on the town highways, was selected as the Democratic nominee for the post of town superintendent of highways.

The position of assessor for four years went to James Cowhey of Ulster Park and assessor for two years was Norman Good of Esopus.

George Freer of Esopus, who lost the election for councilman by a very few votes two years ago, was unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for that office this year.

Zale Liese of Port Ewen was nominated for the office of justice of peace.

Plans for an active campaign and fund raising committee are now being formed.

Hit Poor Forecasting

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — South Korean newspapers today blamed inadequate weather forecasting and rescue facilities for the high death toll from Typhoon Sarah. Officials said 669 persons perished.

A U. S. Army officer said the tropical storm struck last Thursday 12 hours before it was ex- pected.

Plans for an active campaign and fund raising committee are now being formed.

Wiltwyk Hose to Meet

A special meeting of Wiltwyk Hose No. 1 will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the firehouse on Fair Street. L. E. Dunne, secretary, said all members are urged to be present.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and as big as you want them.

Call for a meeting soon . . . for yourself . . . for Dad . . . Mother . . . baby . . . or the whole family.

It's the newest trend in decorating to personalize your home with professionally made portraits in color . . . framed . . . and

Civil Air Patrol
To Use Armory of Engineer Reserves

Approval has been granted for the Kingston Composite Squadron, Civil Air Patrol, to use the new center of the United States Army Reserve 854th Engineer Battalion on Flatbush Avenue, it was made known today by Capt. Sidney Lane, commander of the Kingston squadron.

Major Norman Shurts, center commander, last week briefed Captain Lane and his staff on the use of the new building, and personally conducted them on an inspection tour of the center.

CAP cadet and senior programs include courses in aviation related subjects, communication, etc. A classroom will be available for instruction, and weekly formations and basic training will be conducted in the drill shed.

All meetings will be called promptly at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday evenings. The captain invites all teen-agers at least 14 years of age, both boys and girls, to join the Cadet squadron and all adults who are interested in any phase of aviation are also welcome to join.

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

Harry L. Edson of the Recreation Department gave me a souvenir program of the 150th Anniversary of the Founding of the Government of the State of New York. It seems they had a historical drama at the time. The scene was the courthouse at Kingston. It was taken from the "first session of the State Supreme Court at Kingston, September 9, 1777."

After the sheriff's proclamation, "Chief Justice John Jay" once more spoke these words which are interesting to re-read at this time:

"The Americans are the first people whom Heaven has favored with an opportunity of deliberating upon and choosing the form of government under which they should live; all other constitutions have derived their existence from violence or accidental circumstances, and are therefore probably more distant from their perfection, which, though beyond our reach, may nevertheless be approached under the guidance of reason and experience."

Chief Justice John Jay further said in Kingston in 1777:

"Your life, your liberties, your property, will be at the disposal only of your Creator and yourselves. You will know no power but such as you will create; no authority unless derived from your grant, no laws, but such as acquire all their obligation from your consent. Adequate security is also given to the rights of conscience and private judgment. They are, by nature, subject to no control but that of the Deity, and in that free situation they are now left. Every man is permitted to consider, to adore and to worship his Creator in the manner most agreeable to his conscience."

Again going back to Tuesday, April 22, 1777, which was a gala day in Old Kingston. Bells rang from steeples to summon the citizens to hear their fundamental laws read officially. A temporary platform was built of strong planks placed on sturdy barrels in front of the courthouse. Flags decorated the buildings. Members of the convention formed a semi-circle about the crude platform, and behind them began gathering a large crowd of soldiers and civilians, men and women and children. Colonel Pierre Van Cortlandt, vice president of the convention, and Robert Berrien, one of its secretaries, climbed to the improvised rostrum of boards on barrels, and the secretary began to read in a clear, loud voice, the new state documents which gave them a government created by their own representatives. Shouts of approval, the booming of guns and the ringing of bells followed the reading of that most important document, the beginning of our state government.

They have some excellent reproductions of old houses like the Evert Bogardus Tavern where the first Assembly met. The Old Court House, the Old Dutch Church which was burned in 1777, which had a steeple and a bell. The Old Kingston Academy as it used to be when it was the Leader office. The De Wall Tavern when there was a high solid fence next to it, and a hitching post. The Anthony Hoffman House is there. There is a copy of an oil painting of John Jay by Joseph Wright (1786). A photo-copy of Judge Alphonso T. Clearwater, Judge of the Supreme Court, Gilbert D. B. Hasbrouck, Chief Judge, Court of Appeals, Alton B. Parker and Mrs. Parker. Gov. Alfred E. Smith, U. S. Sen. James W. Wadsworth Jr. and Frank Pierrepont Graves are in the front of the book.

APPLES
FOR EATING OR COOKING

BARTLETT PEARS,
BLUE PLUMS, DAMSON PLUMS
for Canning, ONIONS
POTATOES
SWEET CIDER
MAPLE SYRUP
FRESH EGGS

MONTELLA
FRUIT FARM
ULSTER PARK, N.Y.

Important message for you, Mrs. Housewife!

"I tried them all, and found your meats were superior in every respect. I can certainly understand why your meats are called 'First Prize.' "

28 August, 1959
110 Rose Lane
Apt. 14-B
Rome, N.Y.
President,
Tobin Packing Co., Inc.,
Rochester, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

This letter is being written because I simply must tell you how very much I have enjoyed your delicious meats.

I can certainly understand why your meats are called "First Prize."

I have recently moved to Rome, N.Y. from San Antonio, Texas - and naturally all our meat brands were new to me - so I tried them all, and found your meats were superior in every respect.

Thank you so much for taking the time to put the finest of meats in our markets. I am quite sure your business will be a long and prosperous one.

Sincerely,

Eve J. McCormick
(Mrs.) H. C. McCormick

... writes Mrs. H. C. McCormick,

Rome, New York

(...in one of the many unsolicited letters we receive)

Mrs. McCormick, a stranger in Tobin-land, soon learned what you have always known: - food budget money spent on meats and meat food products buys the most in quality, flavor and wholesome purity when you purchase Tobin's First Prize meats. All First Prize products are U. S. Government inspected for your protection, and carry the Good Housekeeping Guaranty Seal.

Tobin PACKING CO., INC.

GENERAL OFFICES

ROCHESTER 2, N.Y.

August 31, 1959

FREDERICK M. TOBIN
PRESIDENT
Mrs. H. C. McCormick
110 Rose Lane, Apt. 14-B
Rome, New York

Dear Mrs. McCormick:

We appreciate your letter very much. To receive an unsolicited testimonial like this makes us all feel that it pays to turn out high quality products and give the public something they want. In order to do this, of course the products cost a little more money but we feel they are the best value in the end.

We are happy to say that our business is growing which demonstrates to us that people like to eat good meat products.

Thank you for taking the time to let us know what you think of FIRST PRIZE meat products.

Very cordially yours,
F. M. Tobin

Tobin's FIRST PRIZE.

Deliberately Created the Finest

Says Downdraft Likely Caused Plane to Crash

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y. (AP)—A sudden downdraft evidently caused the crash of a State Conservation Department plane Sunday, one of the survivors says.

Charles R. Deuel, 48, of Lake Clear, spoke of the crash from his hospital bed Monday.

"We had started out to stock six ponds with fish and . . . we apparently got a bit off course and turned into the wrong notch. As we climbed to circle about . . . the plane apparently hit a downdraft and just couldn't pull out."

The plane, a single-engine, 10-passenger DeHavilland Otter, crashed into the side of McNaughton Mountain in the Adirondacks near here. One man was killed and four others injured.

Deuel, foreman of the department's Saranac Lake fish hatchery, was bruised but not seriously injured.

"I'm very thankful to be alive today and I know that the other fellows feel the same way," Deuel said.

Chester Jackson, 55, of Saranac Lake, was killed. He was an employee at the hatchery. The other injured were Arthur Martin, 35, of Tupper Lake, a hatchery employee who was seriously burned; James Lindsey, 37, of Albany, assistant superintendent of the department's Bureau of Fish, and the pilot, Roy E. Curtis, 41, of Guilderland Center, near Albany. Lindsey and Curtis were in satisfactory condition, the hospital said.

Curtis was said also to have blamed a downdraft.

Deuel and Curtis plodded for seven hours through dense woods to summon help from a department camp that had a telephone. Lindsey and Martin, too weak to walk more than two miles, were rescued by an Air Force helicopter.

"I'll never again complain about paying income taxes, after the job those Air Force men did, staying with us and landing in that rugged terrain to take our injured out," Lindsey told a reporter.

Bicyclist Killed

DANBY, N. Y. (AP)—Mrs. Arlene Lovejoy, 31, was killed Monday night when her bicycle and an automobile collided.

SATURN'S RING — Two men largely responsible for the success of America's first earth satellite, Explorer I, inspect the model of a rocket that may land as much as 3,000 pounds of equipment on the moon within the next decade. Dr. Werner von Braun, left, and Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris of the Army's missile center at Redstone Arsenal, Ala., discuss the promise of the gigantic 200-foot-tall Saturn. By its side, the Jupiter rocket, which put Explorer I in orbit, looks insignificant.

Supervisor Chairman Loses Bid to Return

WESTFORD, N. Y. (AP)—Republicans turned down the chairman of the Otsego County Board of Supervisors in his bid for renomination on the GOP ticket.

Edward J. Skellie lost by five votes to Richard Dickson, a dairy farmer, in caucus balloting Saturday night.

Norman Busacker, chairman of the Town of Westford GOP caucus, announced the 50-45 vote Monday.

Skellie has been a supervisor for 10 years. He became chairman this year.

Party sources blamed his defeat on the fact that he had initiated a study of a county sales tax proposal. Dickson opposed it. No action has been taken on the proposal.

'Special' People Only Think They Have Special Problems

BY FAYE HENLE

I've had a complaint. Along with you, I'd like to test its validity.

Said my complainant: "You writers go to endless lengths to advise and air the problems of average people. You never consider special people whose problems are special."

Who are "special" people? What "special" problems do they have?

Widows think they are "special." Yet unfortunately there are millions of them in the U. S.

Women who head households, upon whose earnings or income the support of minor children, an invalid husband or an aged parent depends, consider themselves "special."

Those who have no relatives to whom they might will their worldly possessions feel they are "special."

The truth is that no matter how average we are, once we are faced with a problem, we tend to believe we are unique. If you'll just stop tagging yourself "special," I'll promise half of whatever problem faces you will be licked.

Everyday I hear from widows. Some have braved the world alone for years. Others are meeting a new situation. Unless a widow is gainfully employed, one of her great difficulties today is to make her fixed income buy the goods and services she needs and wants. If you are faced with this problem, remember there are millions suffering the same plight and the best advice I can offer is this:

Don't air your problems to everyone you meet hoping someday someone will produce the magic formula of solution. Instead, decide for yourself what it is you want and what you can afford. Then find a single reputable counsellor, preferably someone professional, to whom you can give trust and understanding. Map your goals and methods of achievement with him. Find out how you can learn how to manage your own affairs, insurance, investments, real estate, so that together you can recognize and solve your problems.

If you are the head of a household, take heart. What you must do is to review your situation with an eye to setting up two separate financial programs. The first should be to protect you and those dependent upon you should anything happen and you would no longer be able to work. The second is a program for your retirement.

You must consider what future assets you'll be able to count upon and the possible future status of those who today depend upon you. When you separate these two facets of your life and get your plans on paper you'll be

Mayor of Owego Quits Post, No Explanation

OWEGO, N. Y. (AP)—An acting mayor took over in Owego today after the sudden resignation of Mayor John Days.

Days handed in his resignation to the village board of trustees Monday night. It was effective immediately.

Days, a Republican, gave no reason for quitting. He has been a hospital patient several times in the last two months. In the primary election last week, he lost a bid for the GOP nomination for superintendent of highways in the Town of Owego.

Trustee Elton Hubert, also a Republican, took over as acting mayor. He is expected to serve until the village election in March.

The village board designates an acting mayor at the start of each year to serve in the mayor's absence.

EIGHT-CYLINDER MODEL — Work on a rocket that may be capable of putting a 10½-ton satellite into orbit about the earth or landing 1½ tons on the moon is under way at the Army's Ballistic Missile Agency at Redstone Arsenal, Ala. Shown here is a close-up of a one-quarter scale model of the booster stage of the giant 20-story Saturn. It consists of a combination of eight liquid-fuel engines. The actual booster will be 75 feet tall and will generate 1,500,000 pounds of take-off thrust.

Belly-Landing Is Blamed on Pilots Not Lowering Gear

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

UTICA, N. Y. (AP)—A Mohawk airline with 37 passengers aboard made a belly-landing at White Plains last week because its pilot and co-pilot failed to lower the landing gear, Mohawk Airlines says.

The airline did not say why the pilots failed to lower the gear. It said no mechanical failure had occurred.

One passenger reported minor injuries after the plane landed in a shower of sparks last Friday night at Westchester County Airport.

Asked if any disciplinary action was planned against the pilots, a Mohawk spokesman said that was up to Robert Peach, the president.

Peach could not be reached.

In a statement Monday night, the company said an investigation had disclosed no mechanical failure or malfunction of the aircraft, a Convair 240 Cosmopolitan.

The incident was caused by the failure of the captain and the man, Robert B. Roshay of Jamaica, Queens, a messenger for an advertising agency, fell before an oncoming train in the Fifth Avenue station of the independent division Monday.

The motorman halted the train about 10 feet from Roshay. Police said they found a .22 caliber revolver on the tracks and a suicide note in Roshay's pocket.

first officer to lower the aircraft's landing gear," the airlines said. Jack Mozman of Newark, N. J., was the pilot and Robert Zimmerman the first officer.

The company said Mozman and Zimmerman "were to be recommended for their complete cooperation in determining the cause of the incident."

The plane was en route from Utica to Newark, N. J., with a stop scheduled at White Plains.

The airline said the Federal Aviation Agency and the Civil Aeronautics Board also were investigating the incident.

The FAA said in Washington it had no comment on the Mohawk statement.

Shoots, Self, Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—A 23-year-old man who shot himself in the head in the subway died today in Roosevelt Hospital nearly 13 hours after the shooting.

The man, Robert B. Roshay of Jamaica, Queens, a messenger for an advertising agency, fell before an oncoming train in the Fifth Avenue station of the independent division Monday.

In a statement Monday night, the company said an investigation had disclosed no mechanical failure or malfunction of the aircraft, a Convair 240 Cosmopolitan.

The incident was caused by the failure of the captain and the man, Robert B. Roshay of Jamaica, Queens, a messenger for an advertising agency, fell before an oncoming train in the Fifth Avenue station of the independent division Monday.

Two Fined $500 For Ticket Racket

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A former seller of railroad tickets and an insurance man have been fined $500 each for their part in a railroad ticket refund racket.

Federal Judge James T. Foley Monday fined Howard Wygant, 49, of Albany, the ticket seller, and Stanley Knapke, 51, of Woodbridge, N. J.

They also were given suspended sentences and placed on probation for two years.

They had pleaded guilty last May to charges of conspiring to defraud the federal government. Six others involved in the case have pleaded innocent. They will face trial this fall. No date has been set.

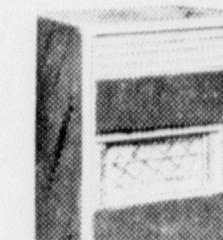

The eight were conductors, ticket sellers and men unconnected with the railroad—the New York Central. Federal authorities said the conductors took tickets from passengers, failed to punch them, and delivered them to middlemen who would redeem them at the Albany station. The group made $10,000 in one year, federal agents said.

Everyone can afford the FINEST heat for small home or apartment!

NATURAL GAS SPACE HEAT
costs no more than less desirable fuels

Figure it out! Count all the costs and you'll discover that Natural Gas gives you the finest heating at no greater cost than fuels offering far less.

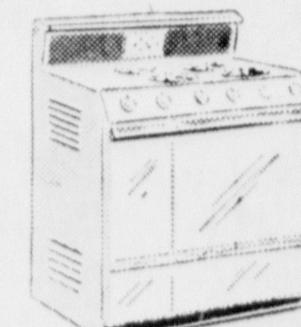

Call Central Hudson for full information on clean-safe-automatic Natural Gas space heat for your home. Do it today!

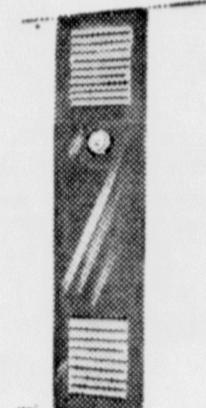

Wall heater

Console heater

Gas and Gas Range

Your Natural Gas space heater can be installed in a matter of hours!

CENTRAL HUDSON

EDWARD F. REYNOLDS

BUILDING & HEATING CONTRACTORS

39 E. STRAND Magic Chef Ranges & Heaters FE 1-1808

$479
4 QUART

Bellows
Club Bourbon

BELLows & COMPANY, LOUISVILLE, KY. • STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY
86 PROOF • DISTRIBUTED BY NATIONAL DISTILLERS PRODUCTS COMPANY

© 1959 BELLows & COMPANY

JOS. SCHOLAR & SON

"APPLIANCES—HEATING—AIR CONDITIONING"

78 N. Front St. — Phone FE 1-0379 — Kingston, N. Y.

"The Best Service in Town" "Our 26th Year"

Yankees Sign Boice To Minor League Farm

Kingston Schoolboy Ace Gets D Contract

Charles (Chick) Boice, who got his start in local Little League baseball, has been signed to a minor league contract by the New York Yankees.

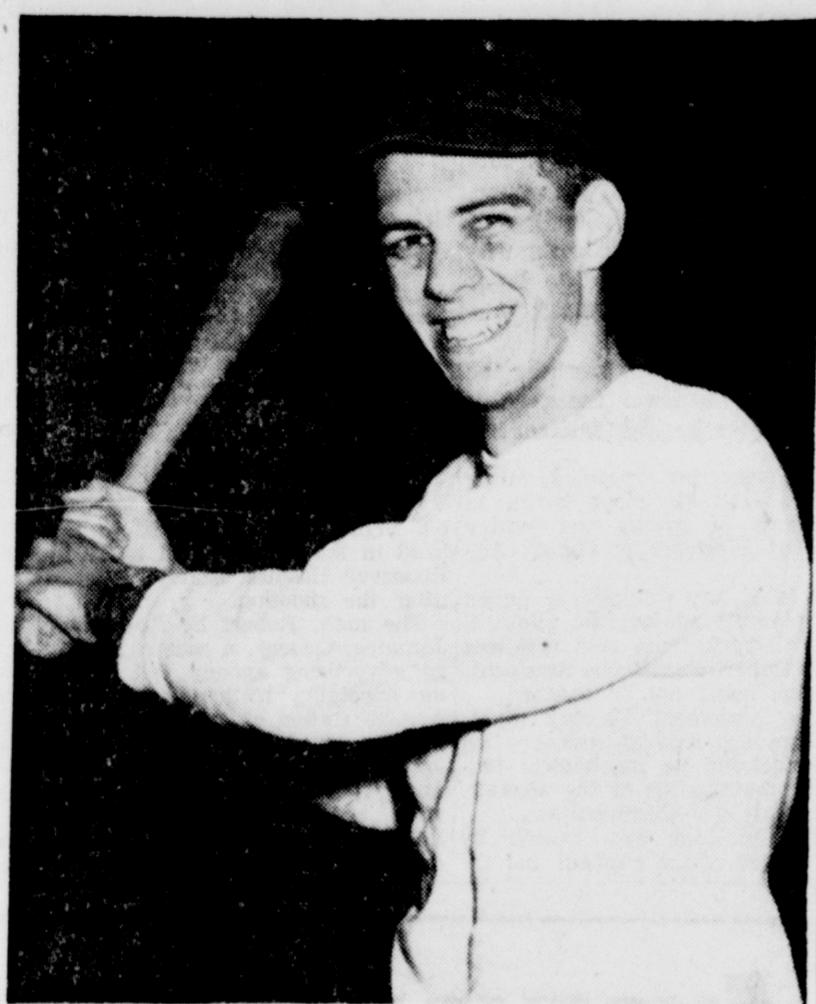

A strapping 6 foot 4, 190 pounder, Boice has been a standout player in every league he performed — Little League, Babe Ruth League, American Legion baseball and the Kingston High School varsity.

Boice has alternated between first base and the pitching box, but Tom Kane, of Albany, the Yankees' area scout said he would be groomed by the Yankees as a first baseman.

"I've seen the boy in action several times," said Kane, "and I was impressed by his power and all-round potential. I think he has an excellent chance to make it big in organized baseball." Kane made several trips to Kingston before signing Boice.

Boice will be assigned to a Class D team in the Yankee chain and is scheduled to report to the Yankees' minor league training camp next spring.

The future Yankee prospect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Boice of 119 Moore Street in Kingston.

CHARLES "CHICK" BOICE

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO

Freeman Sports Editor

The STANDINGS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

American League

	W.	L.	Pct.	G.
Chicago	91	59	.607	—
Cleveland	87	62	.584	34½
New York	76	73	.510	14½
Detroit	74	75	.497	16½
Baltimore	72	77	.483	18½
Boston	70	79	.470	20½
Kansas City	63	85	.426	27
Washington	63	86	.423	27½

Tuesday Games

Kansas City at Detroit
Chicago at Cleveland (N)
New York at Washington (N)
Baltimore at Boston (N)

Monday Results

No games scheduled

Wednesday Games

Baltimore at Boston
Kansas City at Detroit
New York at Washington (N)
Only games scheduled

National League

	W.	L.	Pct.	G.
Los Angeles	83	66	.557	—
Milwaukee	83	66	.557	—
San Francisco	82	67	.550	1
Pittsburgh	77	73	.513	6½
Cincinnati	72	78	.480	11½
St. Louis	71	78	.477	12
Philadelphia	68	81	.456	15
Philadelphia	61	88	.409	22

Tuesday Games

San Francisco at Chicago
Los Angeles at St. Louis (N)
Milwaukee at Pittsburgh (N)
Cincinnati at Philadelphia (2, twi-night)

Monday Results

Milwaukee 8, Pittsburgh 6
Chicago 12, St. Louis 3

Portable Record Players

Saccoman's JEWELERS
580 BROADWAY
PHONE FE 1-6770

MUFFLERS

FREE 15 MINUTE INSTALLATION

Factory Written Lifetime Unconditional Guarantee.

MUFFLERS

SAVE MONEY

Expert Workmanship
SHOP and COMPARE
Call Us for Prices!

MUFFLERS

Open Daily 8 a. m. to 6:30 p. m.—Fridays 'till 8:30 p. m.
MUFFLERS INC.

FE 1-5440 3 MILES NORTH OF KINGSTON on 9W
SAUGERTIES ROAD — NEXT TO BOB'S AUTO PARTS

Shock Absorbers Installed FREE (on most cars)

and broadcasters and amassed a total of 1,103 points—more than double that of Oklahoma.

The top ten, with total points based on 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second, etc.—first place votes in parentheses:

1. Louisiana State (64) ... 1,105
2. Oklahoma (12) ..... 506
3. Auburn (6) ..... 474
4. Mississippi (6) ..... 468
5. Clemson ..... 370
6. Southern Methodist ..... 262
7. Army ..... 248

8. Wisconsin ..... 218
9. Texas Christian ..... 185
10. Northwestern ..... 161

Second Ten:

11. Southern California (4) .. 162
12. Ohio State ..... 154
13. Navy (tie) ..... 128
Iowa ..... 128
15. Texas ..... 112
16. Georgia Tech ..... 106
17. Georgia ..... 88
18. Penn State (2) ..... 70
19. Florida ..... 54
20. South Carolina ..... 44

Sen. Tompkins Gets Synthetic Ace at Woodstock

Former state senator Bernard A. Tompkins, special prosecutor for the current Grand Jury investigation, bagged a synthetic "ace" in the first round of the pari-mutuel tournament at the Woodstock Country Club.

Tompkins, who is rated the top southpaw golfer in the county, deuced the par three No. 9 hole and with a handicap stroke had a net 1. He and his partner, Adolph Heckendorf, head of Woodstock plumbing firm, carded best ball nines of 31-30 to pace the field by two strokes at the end of 18 holes.

Trailing the Tompkins-Heckendorf combine with best ball 63s were Hank Schweizer and Harold Mellin, 33-30-63; Jerry Walters and J. Karl Hartfuer, 29-34-63.

Walter S. Van Wagenen and Harry Hohnhorst, county senior champion, posted 33-31-64 to tie with Allen Waterous and Bob Earley, 30-35. Bill Van Aken and William R. Scully shot 32-35-67; John Lurie-Ken Charlton, 36-30-66; George Svirsky and Joseph Fitzsimmons, 35-33-68; Bob Greenberg and Wayne Underhill, 38-31-69.

The second half of the tournament is scheduled this weekend.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—His Dodgers are facing old nemesis Larry Jackson tonight, but Los Angeles Manager Walt Alston admits he's confident of his club's pennant chance because "you have to be—the players make you feel that way."

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Alston nominated strikeout ace Sandy Koufax (8-6) to face Jackson in the opener of a two-game set with his club in an identical first place tie with Milwaukee in the fantastic National League pennant chase.

Koufax has never finished a game against the Red Birds, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Alston nominated strikeout ace Sandy Koufax (8-6) to face Jackson in the opener of a two-game set with his club in an identical first place tie with Milwaukee in the fantastic National League pennant chase.

Koufax has never finished a game against the Red Birds, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal

Meehan Seeks Replacements For Rondout Valley Squad

John "Chick" Meehan, head football coach and athletic director at Rondout Valley Central School, has a few veterans returning but his biggest problem is trying to find replacements for the ones he had counted on to play this season but for various reasons did not report.

The Ganders have a real toughie for their opening assignment, playing host to Wallkill, the team to beat in the UCAL this season. The opener is Saturday at the Marlbtown School Field, site of all the home engagements this season.

Veterans who will provide Meehan with a nucleus are Seniors Ed Hannan, quarterback; Vic D'Alessio, back; Myron Dembo, end; Steve LaFalce, back; Jeff Spiegel, tackle and Peter Blake, guard; Junior Keith Johnson, end; and Sophomores Michael Chiapetta, back; Richard Spata, back; James Brush, back; Art Friedberg, guard; Lynn Johnson, end.

Fresh Candidates

Freshmen trying out for the squad are Howard Baker, Robert Barnum, Gordon Switz, Floyd Turner, Robert Trenholm, Larry Lohman, Bill Judd, Larry Sickeri, Arnold Smith, Richard Krolin, Frank Stelfa, Nick Gartner and Bill Miller. Coach Meehan said this group has been hustling and he feels the boys will be assets to the club.

Veterans who will provide Meehan with a nucleus are Seniors Ed Hannan, quarterback; Vic D'Alessio, back; Myron Dembo, end; Steve LaFalce, back; Jeff Spiegel, tackle and Peter Blake, guard; Junior Keith

The veteran coach, who will be assisted by John D. Million, former Syracuse player, feels Wallkill rates the favorite nod this season. New Paltz and Marlboro get the edge for runnerup honors because of many returning veterans.

"Our squad will feel the loss of the first line players who decided not to report leaving us weak in the middle," Meehan said. However, he believes his veterans combined with the youngsters will give the Ganders a chance to win some games.

The schedule:

Date	Opponent	Where
Sept. 26	*Wallkill	Home
Oct. 10	Millbrook	Home
Oct. 17	*Oneonta	Away
Oct. 24	*New Paltz	Home
Oct. 31	*Marlboro	Away
Nov. 7	Cornwall	Away

* Denotes UCAL contest.

TENNIS CHAMPIONS—Evans Van Buskirk and Ed Mills, 1959 tennis doubles champions of Kingston receive their trophies from Mayor Edwin F. Radel and Andrew Murphy III, superintendent of recreation for the tournament sponsored by the Recreation Department. From the left: Murphy, Mills, who was also singles finalist; Mayor Radel, Van Buskirk and George Baron, tournament coordinator. (Freeman photo)

Chisox Seek Clincher Tonight in Cleveland

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

This is it. The Chicago White Sox are at Cleveland tonight for one last game with the Indians, already living on borrowed time. One last game for the American League pennant.

Sure, the White Sox have a 3½-game lead with three games remaining after tonight. But this is one that can do it, the one that can put an end to those 40 fruitless years since their last pennant.

A victory at Cleveland clinches it for the White Sox. A loss leaves 'em hanging. Then they'll have to win two of those last three games—all at Detroit against the Tigers, who took two of three at Chicago last weekend—to be safe.

They could lose tonight and still make it, of course. They can do it by winning just one of their last three should Cleveland drop one of its remaining four—all with Kansas City. And they can do it by not winning any—if the Indians drop two to the A's.

But who's to say the Indians will lose any if they put this one away tonight?

It's one game for the pennant. And Chicago's pitching job goes to Early Wynn, the Old Man who's been getting the job done all season, winning 20 and losing but 10. Joe Gordon, the Indians' lame duck manager who could become a living martyr if they pull out the flag, has set up youngster Jim Perry (12-9) for this one. Gordon, pestered into a resignation by General Manager Frank Lane, shuffled his rotation a bit to bring the right-handed rookie against the White Sox with three days rest.

The White Sox have won 14 of 21 with Cleveland this season. And they're 8-2 at Cleveland, where they hung the Indians up to dry by sweeping a four-game series last month.

NOW... '60 CHEVROLET TRUCKS

WITH REVOLUTIONARY CHEVROLET TORSION-SPRING SUSPENSION THAT GIVES ASTONISHING NEW SHOCKPROOF ACTION !!!!!

Chevy's done the next best thing to paving every road in America!

First they threw out the front axle and put in torsion-spring independent suspension. Then they built wide-base coil rear springs into most light-duty models, variable-rate leaf springs into heavies. That made it—a ride you have to feel to believe. A ride that completely eliminates I-beam shimmy and wheel fight, lets you move faster to get more work done in a day.

Brawnier bulldozer build!

They're tougher than any Chevy trucks ever made. Frames are stronger, cabs 67% more rigid. Front wheels and tires are precision-balanced. And that new suspension cushions jars and road shock that used to spell slow death for sheet metal. Longer life is a sure thing!

More comfortable cabs!

Easier to hop in and out of too. Many models are a whole 7 inches lower outside. Yet there's more head room inside, plus more width for shoulders and hips. The windshield's bigger, with a wider, safer sweep of vision. Suspended pedals give you more foot room.

Big in the power department!

With the industry's most advanced gas-saving 6's. With high-torque Workmaster V8 performance in heavyweights. With new 6-cylinder or V8 power available in new Low Cab Forward models.

More models than ever!

New 4-wheel-drive models and tandems and high-styled Suburban Carryalls. It's the handsomest, hardest working Chevy fleet ever to report for duty. See your dealer for the whole story and, by all means, take a ride. It's something!

Anything less is an old-fashioned truck!

See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer

J. H. BYRNE CHEVROLET CORP.
731 BROADWAY KINGSTON, N. Y.
PHONE FE 1-7545

KHS LEADERS—Bob Jenkins, top, and Terry Kalish, will lead Kingston High School's football team as co-captains this season. The Maroon eleven will open Friday night at Port Jervis in a DUSO attraction. Jenkins was an All-DUSO guard last season and Kalish a starting end. (Freeman photos)

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

By Hal Sharp
KNEELING POSITION WITH A RIFLE SLING

THIS POSITION IS USED TO RAISE YOUR LINE OF VISION WHEN OBSTRUCTIONS WON'T PERMIT THE STEADIER, SITTING OR PRONE POSITIONS. IF IT'S COMFORTABLE, TURN KNEELING FOOT UNDER TO SIT UPON INSTEAD OF THE SHAKIER HEEL AS SHOWN. KNEE CAP SUPPORTS SLING-ARM ABOUT 3" ABOVE ELBOW. KNEE AND ELBOW SHOULD BE DIRECTLY BELOW THE RIFLE. THE RIGHT ELBOW CAN SAG COMFORTABLY.

MOVE THE MILITARY SLING'S TOP HOOK ABOUT 2 NOTCHES SHORTER THAN FOR PRONE POSITION.

IT'S STEADIER THAN STANDING.

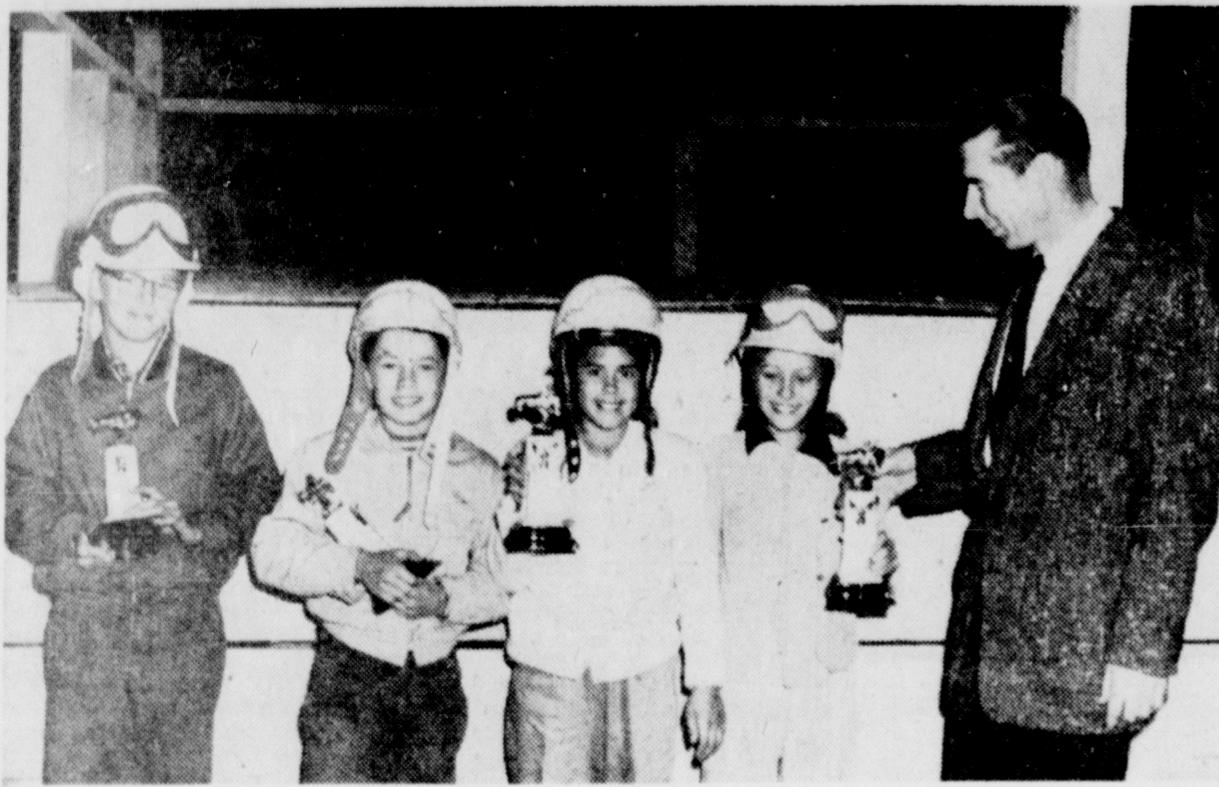

Enjoy more picture detail — more picture depth — more picture dimension from exclusive Zenith developed Sunshine Picture Tube.

100% higher efficiency with Zenith high speed electron gun.

Come in today...

BEN RHYMER
Wheel ALIGNMENT Shop

421 ALBANY AVENUE
PHONE FE 8-1001

MIDGET CHAMPIONS — Winners in the quarter midget races conducted at the 9-W Drive-In Theatre, from the left: Brian Heady, 11; Lou Valentino, 11; Joanne Ceccino, 7; Midge Goss, 10. Looking on is Andrew Benya, manager of the theatre. The youngsters won in competition against a dozen top drivers from the Hudson valley area. (Freeman photo).

Mathews Swinging Hot Stick

His Two Homers Spark Milwaukee Over Pitt, 8-6

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Warren Spahn has won 20 again and Milwaukee has barreled into a tie for the National League lead. But don't kid yourself. The Braves' big guy is Ed Mathews. It was Mathews, belting five home runs in four games for a share of the major league lead with 43, who got the job done. The left-handed slugger drove in five runs Monday night with a pair of homers for an 8-6 decision over the Pirates at Pittsburgh that made Warren The Wonder a 20-game winner for the 10th time in a 15-year career.

The Braves, winning three in a row and 12 of their last 15, jumped into a tie with Los Angeles for a one-game edge over the San Francisco Giants. Each of the contenders has five games to play.

Haddix Gets Start

The Braves are at Pittsburgh again tonight with lefty Juan Pizarro facing Harvey Haddix, the slim southpaw who pitched 12 perfect innings against Milwaukee last May only to lose.

The Dodgers open a two-game series at St. Louis tonight with either Sandy Koufax or Danny McDevitt, both left-handers, going against the Cards' Larry Jackson, a right-hander who blanked Los Angeles on two hits the last time they met.

The Giants start a two-game set at Chicago this afternoon with right-hander Jack Sanford going against the Cubs' Art Ceccarelli, a lefty.

The Cubs clobbered St. Louis 12-3 Monday night in the only other game scheduled in the NL.

Mathews tied the Cubs' Ernie Banks, who hit his 43rd at St. Louis, for the home run lead with a two-run shot in the ninth off Benjie Daniels, the Bucs' fourth pitcher. But Spahn, 6-0 against the Pirates, suddenly was in trouble and the Bucs had three runs in before reliever Don McMahon fanned Don Hoak, to end it.

Polaris Firing Moves U.S. Closer To Nuclear Goal

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Another successful firing of a Polaris missile has moved the United States nearer its goal of nuclear firepower for submarines.

Monday's launching came shortly after Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said in San Francisco that the Soviet Union is scrapping most of its cruisers in favor of submarines and torpedo boats.

Some of the submarines being built presumably are atomic-powered craft capable of firing ballistic missiles. U.S. officials believe the Soviets are building about 12 atomic subs. But most feel they are behind this country in the development of submarine-launched ballistic missiles.

The United States has nine nuclear subs under construction. Each will carry 16 nuclear-tipped Polaris missiles, probably by late next year. The Polaris will have a range of 1,200 miles.

Kingston Soccer Club Wins Loop Debut, 7-1

Members of the Soccer Division of the Kingston Sports Club opened their Central New York State Soccer Football League in impressive fashion Sunday by beating the Troy Italian Community Center, 7-1, at the up-state field.

Several of the local players became lost on the way to the Troy field, but it didn't hurt their playing. After a lively exchange, Alex Dirks scored for the Kingston team with 35 minutes gone. Nine minutes later, Dirks scored again and he tallied his third goal shortly thereafter to give the locals a 3-0 lead.

Troy was penalized after a brief exchange and Tilbur Horwath made the penalty shot from 11 meters out.

Kingston Goalie Ingo Froehlich stopped a Troy penalty shot early in the second half and later in the half, Hans Wolf scored the fifth goal for the winners. Troy broke the ice with another penalty shot but Dirks and George Becker tallied for the invaders to put the game on ice.

Froehlich was impressive in the nets as he blocked a number of Troy shots. Dirks was the offensive leader with four goals.

Next Sunday, the Kingston Sports Club will play at the Amity Athletic Club, Amity, N. Y.

The lineups:

Pos.	Kingston	Troy
G	Froehlich	Maieillo
RFB	Walter	LaPietra
CH	Vizvary	Sorrentino
LFB	Benzoohefer	G. Sorrentino
IR	Bruckner	Rossi
RW	DiBella	Reale
RF	Dirks	R. V. Reale
C	Horvath	Testo
LF	Wolf	Savio
A	Becker	Bovo
W	A. DiBella	Leniero

Reserves for Kingston: Karlson, Schlichting and Peterson. Reserves for Troy: Coprara, Magnotto, Sericolo and Annacire. Referee: DiMarco.

Jack Houghtaling stacked games of 191, 216 and 204 for 611 high count in the Sangi's Bowlers Mixed League last night.

Matty Weishaupl rebounded from a 163 opener to topple games of 212 and 230 for a 605 cluster in the Junior Major League.

DOTTIE LA ROCCA had a 565 series on games of 151-229-185 to lead the Ferraro Women Junior Major. Doris Schenck made 412, Lucille Corrado 496, Madeline Madison 422, Charlotte Herdman 419, Mildred Mackey 400, Katie Donato 408, Gilda Bach 468, Robert Gallagher 412, Dot Daushamra 436, Martha Herdman 447, Gayle Keator 43, Marlene Carlson 405 (her first triple over 400) Jean Decker 401, Grace Sills 406, Jo Brandow 454, Mickey Hendricks 487, Nodja Yonta 423 and Vangie Enright 420. Results: Garraghan Inc. Cities Service 2, Ten Grand Tavern 1; Team 12 3, Wham Oil Co. 0; Capri 2, Team 10 1, Chic's Rendezvous 2, Van Winkle Bedding 1; Team Five 3, Team Four 0; Victory Home Bakery 2, Elston Sport Shop 1.

HAROLD STEWART topped the Independent League with 553. Joe Wolf shot 506, Don Vogel 211-548, Charlie Grunewald 536, Frank Schick 524, Leon Studt 503, Paul Kehderian 525, Jon Karoffa 209-525, Harold Miller Jr. 500. Results: Thomas Printers 2, Beichert Studios 1; Sicklers Delivery 3, Martins Market 0; Vogels Dairy 2, Babcock's Dairy 1; Mannie's Barber Shop 3, Mauro's Grill 0; Markle's TV 3, Rotron Manufacturing Co. 0.

Donald Hines was No. 2 shooter in the Bowler Mixed with 596 on 236-209. Ken Donnelly decked 518, Bud Schoen 510, Charles Boyce 201-568, Doris Ennist 415, Don Sickler 528, Kathy Broski 433, Mary Kennedy 480, Elinor Burberg 402, Bob Schneider 543, Helen Schneider 444; team results: WBAZ Radio 3, Ivan's Inn 0; Colonial Tire 2, Elmendorf's Texaco 1.

High hitters in the City Minor were George Brown 534, Joe Fautz 559, Harold Peterson 557, Vince LaRocca 517, Vince Capino 500, Mannie Colao 511, Joe Rich 523, Ralph Garofalo 501, Rudy Turgeon 203-549, Frank Schupp 206-514, Mel Spano 537, Ken Schupp 206-514, Angelo Corrado 208, Rod Phillips 209, Warren Wood 235-529, Joe Esto 519; team results: Sunnyside Grill 1, Weishaupl's Market 2; Mountaineers 1, Augustine's Insurance 2; Pine Grove Mfg. 2, Skyline Mfg. 1; J&A Roofing 1, American Legion 2; Esposito's 2, Kingston Ornamental Iron Co. 1.

JUNE HOLLIDAY rolled the lone "400" set in the IBM Feather League with 405 on lines of 114, 129 and 162. Team points: Owls 3, Bluejays 1, Wrens 1, Swans 3, Magpies 1, Raven 3, Skylarks 1, Cardinals 3, Flamingos 2, Robins 2.

The Bowlerama ladies League for beginners and intermediates will bowl Tuesday nights at 9 p. m. An organizational meeting is planned Tuesday, Sept. 22, at 8 p. m. at Ferraro's Bowlerama. Interested bowlers are asked to call the alleys for further information.

GEORGE FINCH was high in the Tavern Assn. League with a 584 triple. He stroked lines of 208-203-173 for his close second with 170-244-169-583. Others were Had DeGraff 532, Bill Conlin 208-552, Don McConnell 502, Paul Turk 514, Tony

Woodstock Area News

LISA TIANO, Correspondent

Deanie Elwyn Regains Title To His Village Restaurant

A Woodstock landmark known from coast to coast has reverted to its original ownership.

Deanie's is a widely known and popular restaurant that was the symbol of fine eating in Woodstock for many years, will be taken over in the near future by the original owner and founder of the business, Allen Dean Elwyn, known far and wide as Deanie Elwyn.

The legal transaction restoring ownership to Elwyn after a five-year lapse is expected to be completed within the next few days.

Deanie's has been operated by Alexander and John Backus and George Ginos for the past five years.

Elwyn announced that as soon as the transaction is completed, he will move to completely renovate the place, adding several new features while retaining those that made Deanie's a gourmet's landmark for many years.

From "Trolley Car"

Elwyn leased the place to the Backus brothers and Ginos five years ago this past July, after having built it to great eminence from a modest start in an old abandoned Kingston city trolley car back in 1935.

He built the first major addition to the original "Trolley car" in 1946 and two years later added the upstairs lounge and dining room which was a popular rendezvous for discriminating diners and the scene of many club and organizational meetings and banquets.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

ALLEN DEAN ELWYN

Elwyn who has been active in the real estate field since leaving the business five years ago, will be the sole operator of the business. He has been active at the Woodstock Country Club as an outstanding golfer, a member of the club's Board of Governors and served several terms as executive officer.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

Elwyn leased the place to the Backus brothers and Ginos five years ago this past July, after having built it to great eminence from a modest start in an old abandoned Kingston city trolley car back in 1935.

He built the first major addition to the original "Trolley car" in 1946 and two years later added the upstairs lounge and dining room which was a popular rendezvous for discriminating diners and the scene of many club and organizational meetings and banquets.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

Elwyn leased the place to the Backus brothers and Ginos five years ago this past July, after having built it to great eminence from a modest start in an old abandoned Kingston city trolley car back in 1935.

He built the first major addition to the original "Trolley car" in 1946 and two years later added the upstairs lounge and dining room which was a popular rendezvous for discriminating diners and the scene of many club and organizational meetings and banquets.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

Elwyn leased the place to the Backus brothers and Ginos five years ago this past July, after having built it to great eminence from a modest start in an old abandoned Kingston city trolley car back in 1935.

He built the first major addition to the original "Trolley car" in 1946 and two years later added the upstairs lounge and dining room which was a popular rendezvous for discriminating diners and the scene of many club and organizational meetings and banquets.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

Elwyn leased the place to the Backus brothers and Ginos five years ago this past July, after having built it to great eminence from a modest start in an old abandoned Kingston city trolley car back in 1935.

He built the first major addition to the original "Trolley car" in 1946 and two years later added the upstairs lounge and dining room which was a popular rendezvous for discriminating diners and the scene of many club and organizational meetings and banquets.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

Elwyn leased the place to the Backus brothers and Ginos five years ago this past July, after having built it to great eminence from a modest start in an old abandoned Kingston city trolley car back in 1935.

He built the first major addition to the original "Trolley car" in 1946 and two years later added the upstairs lounge and dining room which was a popular rendezvous for discriminating diners and the scene of many club and organizational meetings and banquets.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

Elwyn leased the place to the Backus brothers and Ginos five years ago this past July, after having built it to great eminence from a modest start in an old abandoned Kingston city trolley car back in 1935.

He built the first major addition to the original "Trolley car" in 1946 and two years later added the upstairs lounge and dining room which was a popular rendezvous for discriminating diners and the scene of many club and organizational meetings and banquets.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

Elwyn leased the place to the Backus brothers and Ginos five years ago this past July, after having built it to great eminence from a modest start in an old abandoned Kingston city trolley car back in 1935.

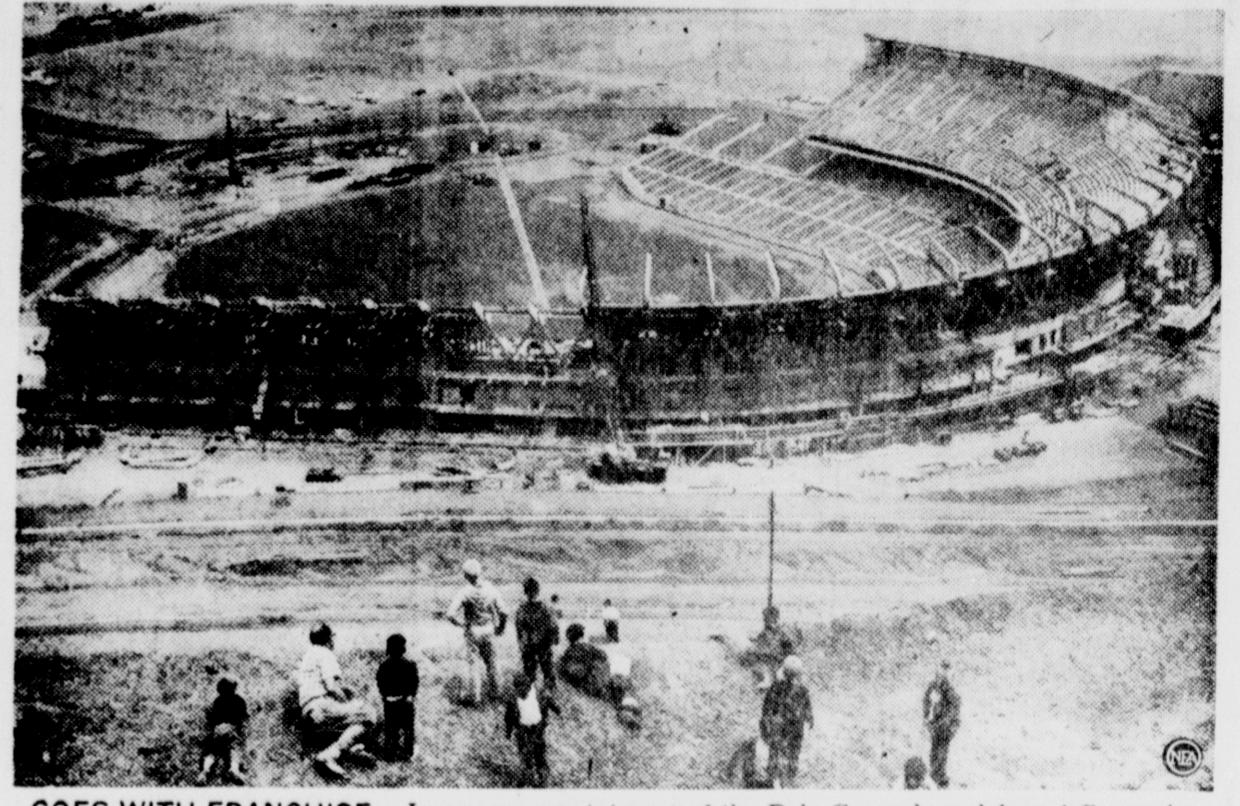

He built the first major addition to the original "Trolley car" in 1946 and two years later added the upstairs lounge and dining room which was a popular rendezvous for discriminating diners and the scene of many club and organizational meetings and banquets.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

Elwyn leased the place to the Backus brothers and Ginos five years ago this past July, after having built it to great eminence from a modest start in an old abandoned Kingston city trolley car back in 1935.

He built the first major addition to the original "Trolley car" in 1946 and two years later added the upstairs lounge and dining room which was a popular rendezvous for discriminating diners and the scene of many club and organizational meetings and banquets.

In announcing re-acquisition of the popular restaurant, Elwyn said he would cater to banquets and organizational meetings in addition to maintaining the high standard of food that made Deanie's famous.

GOES WITH FRANCHISE — In a scene reminiscent of the Polo Grounds and famed Coogan's Bluff, a group of children and a man perched on Bayview Hill watch construction of the San Francisco Giants' new Candlestick Park. Coogan's Bluff was a hill overlooking the Polo Grounds in New York where years ago fans watched games without paying admission.

N.Y.-Paris Call Makes History

NEW YORK (AP) — A telephone call to Paris made history today.

The brief, chatty conversation among three men in New York and four in Paris marked the inauguration of the first telephone cable system to link North America directly to the European mainland.

Those doing the talking were American and European telephone officials.

A 40-million-dollar, 4,400-mile system, the cable extends from Nova Scotia across Cabot Strait and Newfoundland to Clarenville, Newfoundland, as a single cable.

From there a twin-cable system extends across the bottom of the Atlantic directly to Penmarch, France.

Telephone calls are relayed back and forth from New York to Nova Scotia by a radio relay system.

The two-year job of laying the cable was twice interrupted—once by huge ice fields off Newfoundland and again by a fire that swept one of two cables forcing her crew to abandon ship 600 miles west of the French coast.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Co. owns 64 per cent of the cable system. The remainder is owned jointly by the French and German ministries of Posts and Telecommunications.

The pro-Communist rebellion in Laos is not officially on the agenda for the 11th SEATO military advisers conference but delegates left no doubt the situation in the strategic Buddhist kingdom will be a key point of discussion.</p

DONALD DUCK

Registered U. S. Patent Office

By WALT DISNEY

SIDE GLANCES

By GALBRAITH

CARNIVAL

By DICK TURNER

BLONDIE

Registered U. S. Patent Office

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By MERRILL BLOSSER

THE STORY OF MARTHA WAYNE

By WILSON SCRUGGS

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. WILLIAMS

OUR BOARDING HOUSE ... with ... MAJOR HOOPPLE

BARBS

By HAL COCHRAN

OFFICE CAT

Trade Mark Reg. By Junius

© 1959 by Junius

ONE THING AT A TIME

When John MacDonald first proposed to build the great New York subways, engineers and financiers laughed at him. What? dig a tunnel under all these streets and houses and modern skyscrapers the length of Manhattan Island? Impossible! Why, just think the pipe lines, the cables, the sewers, the gas, the water mains—all the obstructions you'd find in the way. It just couldn't be done!

Do you know how MacDonald convinced them?

"You've got a cellar under your house, haven't you?" he asked them. "And the people on either side of you have cellars, haven't they? Wasn't much trouble to dig them, was it?" Well, I'm not figuring on digging any tunnel the length of Manhattan Island; I'm just figuring on digging a lot of cellars—and then connecting them together!"

The landlady brought in a plateful of extremely thin slices of bread, which rather dismayed her hungry male boarders.

Boarder—Did you cut these, Mrs. White?

Landlady—Yes, I cut them.

Boarder—Fine, I'll deal.

It is only at trees—that bear good fruit—that stones are thrown.

An old Quaker, not careful of the teachings of his faith, was discovered by his wife kissing the cook behind the door. But the Quaker was not disturbed.

TIZZY

By KATE OSANN

© 1959 by NEA Service, Inc. T.M. Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

"I don't mind a person being brutally frank with me, but not if they hurt my feelings!"

"Wife," said he gently, "if she doesn't quit this peeking in my pocket, she will make trouble in the family."

Friendship is the art of overlooking the shortcomings of other persons.

Scared husband—You say that.

Some people don't have much to say, but you have to listen so long to find it out.

"Folks here can't be nice enough to Miss Emma these days. She used to be the town's telephone operator and she's writing her memoirs!"

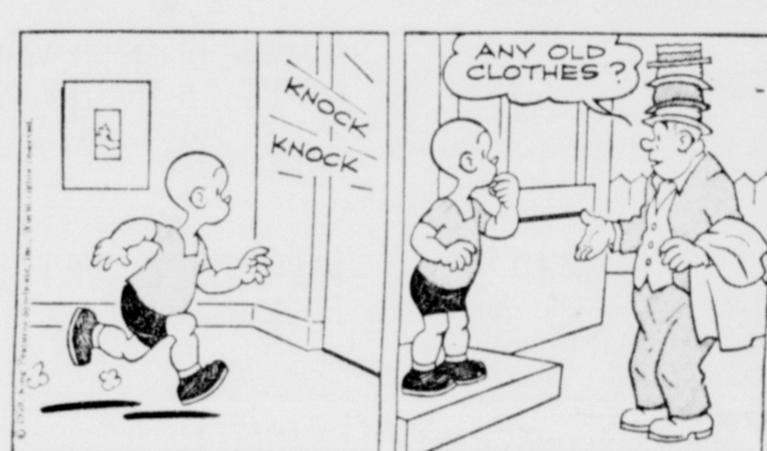

"One annoying strike after another—coal, steel and now that trout of Senator Smelt's!"

BUGS BUNNY

By CARL ANDERSON

By AL CAPP

By LESLIE TURNER

© 1959 by NEA Service, Inc. T.M. Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

By EDGAR MARTIN

By V. T. HAMLIN

FE 1-5000

SEE THE BIG SELECTION OF FINE HOMES IN TODAY'S FREEMAN CLASSIFIED ADS.

FE 1-5000

Ask for Classified Ad Taker
 BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN DAILY
 8 A. M. to 5 P. M.
 MONDAY THRU FRIDAY

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATE
 Lines 1 Day 3 Days 6 Days 25 Days
 3 $1.53 $2.52 $8.25
 4 $2.04 $3.36 11.00
 5 $1.00 $2.55 $4.20 13.75
 6 $1.20 $3.06 $5.04 16.50

For a billing ad containing number additional charge of 50¢.
 Contract rate for yearly and 6
 month advertising request.
 Rate per line of white space is the same as a line of type space is the same for three or six days
 and stopped before that time will be charged only for the number of times
 the ad appeared and at the rate earned.

Advertising ordered for irregular insertions take one time their rate ad taken for less than
 basis of three lines.

The Kingston Daily Freeman will not be responsible for any claim incurred by the use of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

The Publisher reserves the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.

Classified advertisements taken up to 10 A. M. Uptown, 10:30 A. M.
 Downtown each day except Saturday.
 Closing time for Saturday publication
 4:30 P. M. Friday

Uptown
 BR. CF. GK. LP. N. SCF. STC. TP.
 WS.

ARTICLES FOR SALE

A BETTER GRADE OF MUSHROOM
 DIRT, TOP SOIL & FILL DIRT
 CARL FINCH FE-3838

A COMPLETE shop set up of TV
 alignment test equipment & tubes can be had at a very reasonable price. Call FE-11339 after 5 or any time weekends.

ALUMINUM combination storm & screen windows & doors. Top quality extruded. Competitive prices. Call
 6-8474 or OV 7-5731 after 6 p. m.

ALUMINUM comb storm glass. Lowest installed price in Kingston $118.
 Tel-Trac Extruded. FE-8242.

ANTIQUES — pine blanket chest & drop leaf table. FE-12424 after 6:30 p. m.

Ask for "OK" Fallerman. I make loans from $25 to $500 to PAY BILLS.
 UPSTATE LOAN CO. 36 N. Front
 cor. Wall St.—2nd Fl. FE-3146
 Open till 8 p. m. Friday.

AUTO PARTS & TIRES
 USED ALL MAKES & MODELS
 Fatum's Garage 32 Oneil FE-81577

BATHROOM OUTFIT
 2nd hand
 Dial FE-81398

BEDROOM SET — refrigerator; also Pullman couch sleeper. Other items too numerous to mention. 12 West-rum St. FE-12625.

BINOCULARS — Bausch and Lomb.
 7x50 power with case. $70. original price $185. CH 6-8312.

CABINETS for kitchen or any room,
 expertly made. For free estimate
 Harry Sanger. FE-16565 or
 CH 9-9000.

22-CAL PELLET PISTOL — 6 pellet
 mag. Like new, spring operated.
 Hand tooled belt, holster. Schr.
 Walton Rd. Lucas Ave.

CAMERA — Polaroid. Highlander model with flash attachment, this model is new. FE-82437.

CHAIN SAWS — Authorized Dealer
 in Pioneer Mall. Bausch. Also
 BRUSH-KING Cutting Machine
 T-K MACHINERY CO. 209 Hurley N. Y.
 Sales & Service Rte. 209 Hurley N. Y.

CHAIN SAWS — HELMETTE from
 $169.50 power with case. Rock
 Drills. Paving Breakers. Concrete
 Vibrators. Chas M. Dredick, Jr.
 Cottrell Road. Stone Ridge, N. Y.
 Sales-Service-Rentals. OV 7-1818.

CHAIN SAWS - McCULLOCH
 Sales, parts, repairs & rental service.
 All new models, direct drives.
 17 lb. $155.50. Best value.

Best Quality & Service
 West Station Garage
 West Shokan N. Y.

CHOICE BALED HAY
 $30 Ton at
 Maple Lane Farms. A. H. Chambers

CLUB CHAIR — $20. Kraeheler daven-ette. sleeps 2. $80. Both with slip cover. Good condition. FE-1-5446.

DINING ROOM SET — 9 pc.
 Very reasonable
 FE-81647.

DRAPES — 1 pc. triple width, lined green. 2 pr. single width, green chenille. FE-1-7260.

EICO KITS — Stromberg Carlson-
 Fisher, Bogen, University Gordan-
 Rek-Ouk at discount prices. $3.
 Charger and portable $29.95.
 Hand held. Show. Dutchess Turnpike. Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

ELECTRIC HOT WATER HEATER —
 1 oil hot water heater; 3 h. p. garden tractor with attachments. Re-souable. OV 7-6688.

ELECTRIC MOTORS — bought, sold,
 repaired. Work guaranteed. Contractors. K. & S. Elec. Shop. 34 Bay FE-8-1511.

ELECTRIC MOTORS — compressors pumps bought, sold, repaired. P. J.
 Gallagher. 17 Spring St.

ELECTRIC RANGE — Westinghouse,
 good condition. FE-8-2008.

FACTORY APPOINTED
 Briggs & Stratton parts & service
 DEYO'S GARAGE
 Tuxton, N. Y. OL 8-6321

FIREWOOD
 For fireplace, furnace and kitchen stove, hardwood only, cut to size.
 Reasonable. Delivered. Phone OL 7-2417.

GAS RANGE — Caloric. 20". Kelvingas. refrigerator. 7 1/2 cu. ft.; 2 bedroom suites, complete; small 2
 wheel trailer. FE-7-6088.

GAS RANGE — Kenmore. 1 year old.
 $125. 24" window gas. 25% large baby bassinet. $7. And reasonable offer considered. FE-2-2508.

HAT FOR SALE — $25. a ton. Lincoln
 Farms. Berne Road. High Falls
 OV 7-2104.

New York's Largest Display
 Nov. 12th. Sun. Cat. Top... $149.
 New Plywood. Frame... $49.
 18" Chris Craft 95 HP... $1795.
 1956 Dodge Hull, good shape... $350.
 1956 Runabout... $69.
 1956 Ford. 2 door. $1000.00
 Gerry Finke's Marine, 919, Ravena
 7-1030. A. 8 m. p. m. Sun. 1-6

FRUIT & VEGETABLES
 Fresh vegetables & fruit daily, sweet corn, tomatoes, etc. Also pumpkins, decorative corn & house plants.
 Vln. Maggiore Sr. Sawkill Rd.

TOBACCO — ripe and green peppers, also strawberry plants. F.
 Cirone. 80 Chapel St. FE-1-3061.

LIVE STOCK

ALL STATE DELUXE — 1954. readable. Side table. 2 p. m. FE-8-6338.

LIVING ROOM SUITE — 3 pcs. 2 matching tables. 2 lamps. FE-8-2820.

MAHOGANY drop leaf table. A-1 condition. Mrs. Frank Pitts. 165. Fair
 St. No phone.

MARPLE BED — double, spring & mattress. Call FE-8-6853.

MOVING

Terrific bargains — odd lots of all kinds. Biroline & tile. The Kingston Linoleum & Carpet. 66 Crown St.

MUSCOVY DUCKS — McIntosh apples
 100 afternoons. FE-8-8000. Manor
 Lake, Kingston, N. Y.

NEW EDITION — World Book Encyclopedias. $80. FE-8-1799.

OIL HEATER — 2 burner. Florence, in condition. $35. Dial FE-1-7943.

PIANOS & ORGANS
 "You can do better at Winters"
 117 Clinton Ave.

ARTICLES FOR SALE

REFRIGERATOR — 9 cu. ft. G.E. & Thor automatic icemaker, very good and reasonable. Dial FE-8-6917, after 6.

RIFLE — Remington 740 autoloading
 30.06, almost new. $95. 3 power
 Weaver scope, mount caps. $25.

4 $20. 204. 3.36. 11.00.

5 $1. 100. 2.55. 4.20. 13.75.

6 $1. 20. 3.06. 5.04. 16.50.

For a billing ad containing number additional charge of 50¢.

Contract rate for yearly and 6
 month advertising request.

Rate per line of white space is the same as a line of type space is the same for three or six days

and stopped before that time will be charged only for the number of times
 the ad appeared and at the rate earned.

Advertising ordered for irregular insertions take one time their rate ad taken for less than
 basis of three lines.

The Kingston Daily Freeman will not be responsible for any claim incurred by the use of any advertisement
 ordered for more than one time.

The Publisher reserves the right to edit or reject any classified advertising
 copy.

Classified advertisements taken up to 10 A. M. Uptown, 10:30 A. M.
 Downtown each day except Saturday.
 Closing time for Saturday publication
 4:30 P. M. Friday

Uptown
 BR. CF. GK. LP. N. SCF. STC. TP.
 WS.

ARTICLES FOR SALE

A BETTER GRADE OF MUSHROOM
 DIRT, TOP SOIL & FILL DIRT
 CARL FINCH FE-3838

A COMPLETE shop set up of TV
 alignment test equipment & tubes
 can be had at a very reasonable price. Call FE-11339 after 5 or any time weekends.

ALUMINUM combination storm &
 screen windows & doors. Top quality extruded. Competitive prices. Call
 6-8474 or OV 7-5731 after 6 p. m.

ALUMINUM comb storm glass. Lowest installed price in Kingston $118.
 Tel-Trac Extruded. FE-8242.

ANTIQUES — pine blanket chest &
 drop leaf table. FE-1-2424 after 6:30 p. m.

Ask for "OK" Fallerman. I make loans from $25 to $500 to PAY BILLS.
 UPSTATE LOAN CO. 36 N. Front
 cor. Wall St.—2nd Fl. FE-3146
 Open till 8 p. m. Friday.

AUTO PARTS & TIRES
 USED ALL MAKES & MODELS
 Fatum's Garage 32 Oneil FE-81577

BATHROOM OUTFIT
 2nd hand
 Dial FE-81398

BEDROOM SET — refrigerator; also
 Pullman couch sleeper. Other items too numerous to mention. 12 West-
 rum St. FE-12625.

BINOCULARS — Bausch and Lomb.
 7x50 power with case. $70. original
 price $185. CH 6-8312.

CABINETS for kitchen or any room,
 expertly made. For free estimate
 Harry Sanger. FE-16565 or
 CH 9-9000.

22-CAL PELLET PISTOL — 6 pellet
 mag. Like new, spring operated.
 Hand tooled belt, holster. Schr.
 Walton Rd. Lucas Ave.

CAMERA — Polaroid. Highlander model with flash attachment, this model is new. FE-82437.

CHAIN SAWS — Authorized Dealer
 in Pioneer Mall. Bausch. Also
 BRUSH-KING Cutting Machine
 T-K MACHINERY CO. 209 Hurley N. Y.

CHAIN SAWS — HELMETTE from
 $169.50 power with case. Rock
 Drills. Paving Breakers. Concrete
 Vibrators. Chas M. Dredick, Jr.
 Cottrell Road. Stone Ridge, N. Y.
 Sales-Service-Rentals. OV 7-1818.

CHAIN SAWS - McCULLOCH
 Sales, parts, repairs & rental service.
 All new models, direct drives.
 17 lb. $155.50. Best value.

Best Quality & Service
 West Station Garage
 West Shokan N. Y.

CHOICE BALED HAY
 $30 Ton at
 Maple Lane Farms. A. H. Chambers

CLUB CHAIR — $20. Kraeheler daven-ette. sleeps 2. $80. Both with slip cover. Good condition. FE-1-5446.

DINING ROOM SET — 9 pc.
 Very reasonable
 FE-81647.

DRAPES — 1 pc. triple width, lined green. 2 pr. single width, green
 chenille. FE-1-7260.

EICO KITS — Stromberg Carlson-
 Fisher, Bogen, University Gordan-
 Rek-Ouk at discount prices. $3.
 Charger and portable $29.95.
 Hand held. Show. Dutchess Turnpike. Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

ELECTRIC HOT WATER HEATER —
 1 oil hot water heater; 3 h. p. garden tractor with attachments. Re-souable. OV 7-6688.

ELECTRIC MOTORS — bought, sold,
 repaired. Work guaranteed. Con-
 tractors. K. & S. Elec. Shop. 34 Bay FE-8-1511.

ELECTRIC RANGE — Westinghouse,
 good condition. FE-8-2008.

FACTORY APPOINTED
 Briggs & Stratton parts & service
 DEYO'S GARAGE
 Tuxton, N. Y. OL 8-6321

FIREWOOD
 For fireplace, furnace and kitchen
 stove, hardwood only, cut to size.
 Reasonable. Delivered. Phone OL 7-2417.

GAS RANGE — Caloric. 20". Kelvingas. refrigerator. 7 1/2 cu. ft.; 2 bedroom suites, complete; small 2
 wheel trailer. FE-7-6088.

GAS RANGE — Kenmore. 1 year old.
 $125. 24" window gas. 25% large baby bassinet. $7. And reasonable offer considered. FE-2-2508.

HAT FOR SALE — $25. a ton. Lincoln Farms

The Weather

TUESDAY, SEPT. 22, 1959
Sun rises at 5:41 a.m.; sun sets at 5:59 p.m., EST.
Weather: Some Cloudiness

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 63 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 80 degrees.

Weather Forecast

Southeastern New York—Variable cloudiness with considerable fair weather and continued warm through Wednesday. Scattered showers and thundershowers are likely tonight and Wednesday. High today and on Wednesday in middle 70s to lower 80s, low tonight in upper 50s to middle 60s. Winds variable and under 15.

PARTLY CLOUDY TO CLOUDY

Northern New York—Mostly cloudy and cooler with occasional showers this afternoon and tonight becoming partly cloudy and warmer with scattered showers or thundershowers on Wednesday. In extreme south portion, partly cloudy and continued warm with chance of scattered showers or thundershowers tonight and on Wednesday. High today and on Wednesday in upper 60s and 70s north to near 80; extreme south, low tonight in 50s and low 60s. Easterly winds mostly under 15.

Operettas Popular

NEW YORK (AP)—Old time operettas are still highly popular summer theater properties, says David M. Holtzmann, president of the Musical Arena Theatres Assn. Holtzmann says "Rose Marie," "The Merry Widow," "Desert Song," "Naughty Marietta" and "The Vagabond King" are among the most frequently performed shows.

Complete HEATING Systems
OIL GAS COAL

Kingston Heating Corp.
503 Wilbur Ave. FE 1-4866

Scotts, LAWN Products
J. ELLIS BRIGGS INC.
SAUGERTIES ROAD
Kingston FE 1-7072

OPEN DAILY
8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.
Fridays 'til 8:30 p.m.
MUFFLERS Inc.
FE 1-5440 Saugerties Rd.
3 Miles North of Kingston

KENTILE
ASPHALT TILE

CABINETS
Custom Made
Formica Top

LINOLEUM
Rubber Tile Vinyl Tile
CALL FE 1-0691
CLYDE DuBOIS
90 KIERSTED

ATTENTION CAR OWNERS!

Don't let a LEAKY RADIATOR ruin your car's COOLING SYSTEM. Let our SPECIALISTS prepare it for COLD WEATHER just ahead.

DON'T DELAY . . . . . SEE US TODAY

GUARANTEE RADIATOR WORKS
575 B'WAY (at the Amoco Station) PHONE FE8-3905
N. Y. STATE OFFICIAL INSPECTION STATION

It doesn't have to cost you much money to keep the most important part of your home in A-1 shape! See us today, we have the finest roofing materials and the "know-how" to take care of your roof.

STEEP ROOFS
FLAT ROOFS
SMITH PARISH'S
D ROOFING CO
78 Furnace St. FE 8-5656
"KINGSTON ROOFERS"
G SHEET METAL

Roofing Consultants
Since 1932

ILA Vote Favors Tie With AFL-CIO

NEW YORK (AP)—The International Longshoremen's Assn. appeared today to have approved affiliation with the AFL-CIO despite heavy votes against the move in some New York area locals.

The vote in New York and New Jersey locals of the port of New York Monday was 9,970 to 7,719 in favor of affiliation.

Preliminary reports on voting in other ports along the East and Gulf coasts indicated a heavy margin in favor of joining the united labor movement.

The ILA was booted out of the AFL five years ago on charges it was dominated by racketeers.

Youth, 17, Admits Slaying Bronx Boy On School Steps

NEW YORK (AP)—A juvenile gang member's effrontery in going into another gang's territory to date a girl is said to have set off the slaying of a 17-year-old Bronx boy on his high school steps.

John Guzman, a Puerto Rican student at Morris High School, was ambushed outside the school Monday afternoon by eight youths wearing trenchcoats.

Guzman and two companions retreated to the school steps, where Guzman was dropped by a single bullet. He died at a hospital two hours later, after whispering to police: "A blue raincoat—a blue raincoat."

Later police rounded up seven youths and said witnesses identified one, Edward Peres, 17, as the wearer of the blue raincoat. Police said Peres confessed the shooting. The seven were booked on homicide charges.

The blue coat, a police said, apparently was a badge of leadership in a street gang. All the other youths arrested wore light tan coats.

The youths arrested, and one still sought, were described as members of a gang known as the Royal Knights, composed mainly of Puerto Ricans.

Guzman had been a member of another Puerto Rican gang, known as the Valiant Crown. But police said that just before he died he insisted he had left the Crown some time ago.

A short time after Monday's shooting a grand jury returned first-degree murder indictments against seven other Puerto Rican youths in the fatal stabbing of two 16-year-olds Aug. 30 on a West Side playground.

Tables for Taxes

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service here has 51 vibrating tables for sale. The tables belonged to a weight-reducing company and are being sold to help cover unpaid taxes amounting to $71,000.

It is understood the committee will adopt a resolution paying tribute to the leadership of the late Frederic H. Bontecou, former County chairman, who died last Thursday. Bontecou had been reelected to the County committee from the Town of Washington at last Tuesday's primary.

At 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Hotel Sheraton Ten Eyck, Albany the Dutchess County committee will have two representatives present at a state convention to nominate a candidate for Justice of the Court of Appeals to fill a vacancy.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W. Bailey, Putnam County and Hugh S. Coyle, Westchester County, both Republicans and incumbent justices, are expected to be renominated.

On Thursday at 3 p.m. in the White Plains YMCA, the committee will have delegates present at the Republican judicial district convention to nominate Supreme Court justices for the fall election ticket. Justices James W